New Steps Taken to Form Orinda Parking Authority

New steps for formation of an Orinda Parking District in the business section have been taken, resulting in virtual assurance that a local Parking Authority will be established, R. E. Wadsworth reported to the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at its luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at the Willows.

He said that M. E. Keyser, E. J. Phair and Horace Breed are being recommended as the three parking commissioners who would serve without pay.

Wadsworth stated that petitions and map have been filed with the county clerk and that a hearing before the County Boundary Commission "should be held soon."

"TWO OR THREE times as many signatures as needed have been obtained," he said.

He added that presumably the next moves will be advertising, public hearing before the Boundary Commission, then a hearing before the Board of Supervisors.

Wadsworth said that if — as appears likely — there will not be opposition, a Parking Authority would then be established.

EARLY IN AUGUST the chamber submitted proposed boundaries for an Orinda Parking District to the Boundary Commission, but the proposal was referred back to the chamber because, according to Deputy County Assessor Henry Nierhake, the then proposed boundaries would have cut through existing property lines.

The chamber was asked to correlate the parking district and property lines, to avoid this confusion.

A few months ago the chamber voted to sponsor a parking district, to include the Crossroads section on the south and the Village on the north and to extend to Central Contra Costa Sanitary District boundaries on the west.

Special Business Zone Hearing on Wednesday Night

Second public hearing on possible revision of County Zoning Ordinance provisions for Special Business Districts will be conducted Wednesday night by the County Planning Commission.

Associate County Planner George Brenner said yesterday that the commission's technical staff expects to have ready early next week "roughed-out" versions of a site plan for some 25 acres along the west side of San Pablo Dam Road, between the Village and the Crossroads.

The technical staff also expects to have a draft of suggested written changes in the ordinance prepared by then, he said.

THE STAFF HAS been working on these matters since last Monday morning's conference with owners of parcels on the west side of San Pablo Dam Road and with Orinda Association representatives.

At this conference, Chairman James Hupp of the association's Orinda Planning Committee presented a resolution of his group reaffirming its position that "a new Special Business District Ordinance be enacted that will bring about an integrated, well-planned shopping district consistent with the desires of the people of Orinda."

THE RESOLUTION declared that such a district "should be architecturally attractive as well as functional and should be planned to serve only the needs of the area now in the Orinda Elementary School District now and in the future."

It urged the Planning Commission to utilize the services of James Campbell, county planning consultant; Francis Violich, the Orinda Planning Committee's consultant, and Kenneth Jones, consultant to East Bay Municipal Utility District, in preparation of a new Special Business District Ordinance.

Chest X-Ray Unit Visiting Area Now

"More than half of the new tuberculosis cases being discovered in Contra Costa County are in the moderately advanced or far advanced stages when they are more difficult to cure." This warning was issued today by Mrs. A. H. Bastian, Orinda, a director of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association, when she announced that the mobile chest X-ray unit will soon be returning to the central Contra Costa County area.

The chest X-ray unit, sponsored jointly by the county health department and the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association will visit Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Danville within the next two weeks. The schedule is as follows:

Walnut Creek — Lucky Store, September 24, 10-6 p.m.

Walnut Creek — Walnut Festival, September 25 and 26, 2-6 p.m.

Lafayette — Richard's Pharmacy, September 27, 11-6 p.m.

"There were 13 new active cases of tuberculosis reported in the central county area in 1953 alone. Chest X-rays will discover tuberculosis, but when found in the moderately and far advanced stages, it is more difficult to cure," Mrs. Bastian added.

"If our neighbors will have their yearly free chest X-ray on the mobile unit when it comes to their neighborhood, we can find the unknown cases of TB early, and help to reduce the cost of tuberculosis in our county—$850,000 last year," she said.

Deer Hunters Get Wildcat

There's one less wildcat roaming the hills.

Jim Simonds of Lafayette, out deer hunting with a group of friends recently shot him out of a tree with no difficulty and only two bullets.

Here is how it happened:

Gordon E. Frazell, Buck Randall, Ed Kamins and Simonds, all of Lafayette, were hunting together about a mile and a half from St. Mary's Road. Frazell was trying to get a deer out of a patch of brush when Simonds saw the wildcat in a tree watching Frazell.

Afraid the cat might spring on his friend, Simonds simply picked him off.

The cat was about two feet long and weighed in the neighborhood of 50 pounds the hunters said.

Summer Performs Varied Fadeout

Summer's final week in Orinda ranged from a low temperature of 39 last Saturday night to a high of 91 Monday. There was no rain. Here are the temperatures:

Orinda Mothers Commence Annual Membership Drive

The annual membership drive for the Orinda Mothers Club will start on Monday, October 4 to run for two weeks.

Mrs. Harry Minor, membership chairman, announces that prizes will be awarded to every class that has 100% sign-ups the first week of the drive.

For all classes, kindergarten through sixth grade, each child whose class reaches 100% will receive a pencil with the name of their school printed on it. For each student in the 7th and 8th grades whose class has a 100% membership, a ten cent allowance will be made to go toward the purchase of records for their dances.

The Orinda School District has a marvelous record for complete membership in the Mothers Club, according to Mrs. Minor, who urges parents to sign up promptly.

Area chairmen include: Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Carlton Rogers, Glorietta School; Mrs. Douglas Adie and Mrs. John Cartwright, Del Rey; Mrs. E. J. Phair and Mrs. J. W. Neighbor, Sleepy Hollow; and Mrs. Mario Albo and Mrs. R. F. Wiseman, Orinda.

O. C. Jones Firm Will Reconstruct Moraga Highway

On its low bid of $285,577.30, the firm of O. C. Jones and Company of Berkeley on Tuesday was awarded the contract for reconstruction of 3.1 miles of Moraga Highway from Glorietta Boulevard to Moraga Road by the County Board of Supervisors.

In bidding for the job, which is a portion of Bond Project K of the county road program, O. C. Jones and Company offered the lowest of seven bids. The highest bid was $359,355.95.

County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer's estimate had been $310,830.

Plans call for the road looping from Orinda to Lafayette to be reconstructed with 12-foot traffic lanes and 8-foot shoulders for each direction of travel.

Completion is scheduled for April 1, 1955.

Leslie Harlander Wins Scholarship

The Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers recently awarded a scholarship in naval architecture to Leslie A. Harlander, 123 Van Ripper Lane.

He, his wife and three children, will leave for Boston this month where he will study at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, the California Maritime Academy and the University of California, he served as a merchant marine officer during World War II and received his Master's license at the age of 25.

He and his brother Donald have twice won the world's championship in the 110 International Sailing Class.

The son of Col. and Mrs. A. C. Harlander of Oakland, he is employed in the hull design department of Moore Dry Dock Company, Oakland.

Richard Thomson Places in Meet

Private Richard R. Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Thomson, 3 Loma Vista Drive, recently took first place in the 55-meter free style race in an Army swimming meet at Camp Sendai, Japan.

Thomson is a switchboard operator in the 8192d Army Unit, which participated in the swimming meet with other Army units in the Camp Sendai area.

He entered the Army in March, 1953, and arrived overseas last September.

Threat of Suit Stalls Therapy Building Plans

Mt. Diablo Therapy Center's plans to build on a site near Contra Costa Golf Course instead of the originally proposed site on Hookston Road were stalled last week by a threatened taxpayers' suit.

At a meeting of directors of Concord Community Hospital, from which the golf course site was to be leased, it was revealed a taxpayers' suit had been threatened if the lease is granted.

HANS WACHMUTH, president of Four Companies Inc. of Danville, contractors for present hospital construction work, told directors the threatened suit could halt building.

He told the board he had heard of the suit on good authority but was not at liberty to reveal the names of the persons threatening the action.

"As president of Four Companies," he said, "I felt it is my duty to warn the board what we are facing should the suit be filed."

PRESIDENT EDMUND Barnett of the Therapy Center questioned whether the persons involved would be willing to post the bond necessary in filing the injunctions.

Wachsmuth replied, "It is my understanding that the people involved are both willing and able to supply such a bond." He also pointetd out delays would increase the cost of the present construction.

President B. C. Shaul and Elmer Whalen expressed the opinion no public body would ever accomplish anything if intimidated by threats of suits.

On the other hand, directors John L. Garaventa and Ed Nichols recommended an opinion from the District Attorney and State Attorney General be obtained prior to any firm commitment.

A MOTION BY GARAVENTA the lease be tabled until legal opinions are obtained was deadlocked as he and Nichols voted for it and Shaul and Whalen voted against it.

Grant Burton, the fifth member o fthe board, was absent from the meeting on a business trip to Los Angeles.

Though Barnett asked what he should report back to his board, he was unable to obtain any commitments. He told directors unless the lease can be made in 45 days, the center will have to return to plans for building on its Hookston Road site.

J. H. Englesman Gets Navy Rating

Joseph H. Englesman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Englesman, 21 Los Dedos Road, was advanced to the rate of Seaman, USN, while serving recently aboard the escort vessel USS Walton with the Pacific fleet.

He is assigned to the operations department to which he reported from Treasure Island, San Francisco.

Englesman, a graduate of Acalanes High School, entered the Navy in June.

Facts on Groups Still Needed for 'Get Acquainted'

Let's get acquainted!

That's the general idea of the special Get Acquainted issue of The Orinda SUN which is now being prepared.

A number of organizations have not yet sent in the necessary information for that issue. It's too late for pictures of heads of the group to be taken—but presidents can still send in the filled out information sheets, so that the Get Acquainted issue will have an article about their organizations.

If any organizations have not yet been contacted by The SUN, please let us know.

Following are organizations which have not yet returned their forms:

Orinda Lions Club, Orinda Rotary Club, Canyon Ranch Association, Minerinda Association, Moraga Woodlands Association, Rheem Highlands Association, Santa Maria Catholic Women's Club, Hacienda Improvement Association, Orinda Country Club, Boy Scouts, Orinda Community Church Council, Santa Maria Catholic Church Parish.

Here's Your Extra Hour!

It's that time again — rather, it will be at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Meaning, of course, the return to Standard Time. Officially, 2 a.m. Sunday (Daylight Saving Time) will become 1 a.m. (Standard Time).

Of course, you don't have to stay up until 2 a.m. to turn your clocks and watches back an hour. Simplest method of adjusting yourself and your timepieces to Standard Time is to turn the clock and watch hands back an hour before you go to bed — if your bedtime is before 2 a.m.

If you go to bed after 2 a.m.—well, you'd better turn the hands back, too, before you retire!

Incumbents Lose in Sewer District Board Election

Richard J. Mitchel lof Pleasant Hill and Raymond W. Fisher Jr. of Orinda were elected to 4-year terms on the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board Monday.

They defeated M. H. Stanley and Campbell MacPhail, incumbents, in an election which saw only a little over 4 per cent of the district's registered voters at the polls.

According to District Secretary Claude McPhee, the unofficial count of the 1217 ballots cast showed the following totals for the four candidates:

Mitchell—791.
Fisher—599.
Stanley—448.
MacPhail—427.

There are over 29,000 registered voters in the Sanitary District.

HEAVIEST VOTING was in Pleasant Hill, where Mitchell, a registered chemical engineer, piled up decisive leads.

Mitchell, chairman of the planning and zoning committee of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council, carried the three Pleasant Hill consolidated precincts and the two Walnut Creek precincts.

Fisher, a registered civil engineer, led in the two Orinda precincts. Stanley carried his home precinct, No. 6 in Lafayette, by a one-vote margin over MacPhail and Mitchell. MacPhail carried the other two Lafayette precincts.

IN PLEASANT HILL, voters at at the three polling places gave Mitchell 507 votes, Fisher 273, Stanley 157 and MacPhail 96.

In Walnut Creek, the count was: Mitchell 94, Stanley 82, MacPhail 79 and Fisher 73.

Lafayette voters gave 154 votes to MacPhail, 119 to Stanley, 109 to Fisher and 95 to Mitchell.

In Orinda, Fisher received 134 votes, MacPhail 98, Mitchell 95 and Stanley 90.

THE OLD BOARD will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the district headquarters, 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, to canvass the votes. McPhee said it is possible that Mitchell and Fisher may be sworn in at that meeting, but that this is not certain.

The board is required to meet "as soon as practicable" after next Tuesday's special annexation election in Clayton and Ygnacio Valleys, to canvass the results of that election. According to McPhee, the newly elected directors may not possibly be sworn in until that session or even until the next regular meeting, October 7.

Precincts 1, 2 and 3 are in Pleasant Hill. (Precinct 2 is Mitchell's home precinct.) Precincts 4 and 5 are in Walnut Creek. recincts 6, 7 and 8 are in Lafayette. (Precinct 7 is MacPhail's home precinct.) Precincts 9 and 10 are in Orinda. (Precinct 10 is Fisher's home precinct.)

HERE IS THE unofficial tally of votes:

Pct.	M'Phail	Stanley	Fisher	Mitchell
1	25	52	95	180
2	31	36	107	191
3	40	69	71	136
4	33	35	43	44
5	46	47	40	50
6	21	22	16	21
7	99	72	71	54
8	34	25	22	20
9	53	40	65	41

SUN Editor Talks to Lions

Eleanor Silverman, associate editor of The SUN, addressed members of the Orinda Lions Club at Orinda Willows Wednesday evening in connection with National Newspaper Week.

Choosing as her subject 'Don't Print That," Mrs. Silverman spoke on the gathering and writing of news and the many varied happenings in the life of a newspaper editor.

Bus Shelter Site Favored

"Best possible site" for a new bus-waiting shelter and commuter parking lot — along the west side of San Pablo Dam Road just beyond the Orinda interchange ramp — has been found, Horace Breed informed the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at its luncheon meeting at the Willows Tuesday noon.

At the same session, the chamber decided to continue to explore possibilities for adequate parking space for employees and customers of Orinda business firms.

In informal discussion, chamber members agreed with Breed's description of the San Pablo Dam Road site.

Breed reported that the chamber has been considering two possible sites, but that the San Pablo Dam Road site, along frontage of Shell Oil Company property, was far superior to the other.

The other site is along the south side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard, east of Davis Road, on East Bay Municipal Utility District property.

ACCORDING TO BREED, the Shell station site is the best for both eastbound and westbound commuter traffic.

"It is obviously the best for westbound traffic," he said.

"But it is also the best for eastbound traffic, since in order to reach the shelter the buses would make a very short detour via the south cloverleaf and through the underpass, and to continue eastward the buses would simply go back through the underpass to get back onto the freeway."

Breed pointed out that the site near Davis Road would involve more complicated traveling, with the necessity of returning through the business district in order to get back on the eastbound freeway.

THE SHELL SITE has room for a bus shelter and for bus-turnaround space, Breed stated. He estimated the site would have parking space for 150 cars.

"In talks between the chamber and Shell, the company has expressed willingness to grade and surface the lot at its own expense," Breed said.

"The State Division of Highways would probably cooperate by relocating some 50 feet of fence, to provide a good turnaround spot."

Whether or not there would be a charge for parking has not yet been discussed, Breed added.

Breed pointed out that the Shell property runs to the creek and that if the additional space, unusable to Shell for service station purposes, were filled, parking accommodations could be increased 50 to 60 per cent.

EBMUD President Louis J. Breuner and General Manager John W. McFarland have offered "very good cooperation" regarding the Davis Road site, Breed reported.

RAMSAY UNDERWOOD observed that two years ago the state indicated that, of all possible sites for a new commuter stop, the San Pablo Dam Road site was the best.

Close contact with the Contra Costa County Commuters Association is being maintained by the chamber in regard to the matter, according to Breed. He said the commuter group will discuss the problem with Greyhound officials. However, he added that if "most parties" approve the site, the California Public Utilities Commission could rule that Greyhound must utilize the site and make the necessary detours to do so.

UNDERWOOD EMPHASIZED that all this "does not solve the general Orinda parking problem in any way" and that the work of the Orinda Parking Authority should proceed. Steps are being taken for formation of an Orinda Parking District. (See separate story.)

M. E. Keyser asked how much room would be needed for employee parking and where suitable parking spots could be located.

PRESIDENT Ernest Poll said he would appoint a member to make a survey of local business firms to determine how many employees park their cars near work now.

Town Hall Meet To Be 'Opener' On Incorporation

Extensive discussion by the Orinda Association's Board of Directors and the Civic Affairs Committee resulted Monday night in decision that the October 11 "town hall" meeting on incorporation will be the "opening gun" for further community discussion.

After hearing County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer explain possibilities regarding local roads under incorporation and listening to Ken Norris, director of Coro Foundation's consulting service, touch on highlights of the report he prepared a few months ago for the association, the 35 persons at the gathering made their decision on the nature of the "town hall" meeting.

The "town hall" meeting, to be held at Orinda School auditorium, had originally been planned as a session at which the people of Orinda would vote on whether petitions should be circulated for incorporation.

However, those at Monday night's meeting agreed with William Penn Mott Jr. when, toward the end of the session, he stated:

"IT SEEMS to me that about the only thing your incorporation study committee can do at the October 11 gathering is to present the Coro report and discuss the advantages and disadvantages of incorporation.

"It seems to me that the association's various other committees, such as those on planning, fire protection and roads, should then carefully study the report and at a later date make recommendations regarding incorporation as it relates to their fields.

"If these committee reports are in favor of incorporation, then you have the basis for making a recommendation to the people.

"If you place the matter before the people October 11 for a decision, you'd be turned down cold. Not enough people are familiar with the facts.

"WE'LL HAVE TO have subsequent meetings, at which reports of committees can be made and discussed. An intelligent decision can't be reached at just one meeting."

Association President Zach Montgomery and Frank Cayting, chairman of the incorporation study committee, pointed out that the association has not taken any stand regarding incorporation.

They stressed that the objective so far has been the gathering and dissemination of facts and that decision is up to the people of the community.

Young GOPers Get in the Swim

More than 100 people attended the Orinda Young Republican swimming-barbecue party last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Irwin Jr., Sleepy Hollow.

Guests were entertained by a humorous aquacade directed by Kay McGuire. Depicting various local political figures were John, Begg, Bruce Howard, Betty and Jim Irwin, Duane Neuenschwander, Etta Hill, Ginger Bascom, Ron Light, Bill Nelson and Karl Rigor.

Further entertainment was provided by Bill Platt who played the ukulele during community singing.

Mrs. Joseph Creighton was general chairman of the party.

Assemblyman Don Doyle and John Baldwin, congressional candidate, were among the guests.

George Rice, Keith Chase-Dunn Oppose Breuner, Neilson in EBMUD Election

Two contests in election of East Bay Municipal Utility District directors November 2 are assured as the result of certification of the required number of registered voters' signatures on nominating papers of four candidates.

Candidates running for 4-year terms on the EBMUD board are:

From Ward 3 — George L. Rice Dunn versus Thomas S. Neilson.

From Ward 3 — George L . Rice versus incumbent Louis J. Breuner, board president.

EBMUD SECRETARY Hart Eastman announced yesterday that each candidate had more than the required minimum of 500 valid signatures on his nominating papers.

Terms of Breuner and Neilson expire in January. Candidates elected will take office January 3. Terms of the three other directors continue until January, 1957.

Although each candidate is required to reside in a certain ward of the district, election is by voters throughout the district.

RICE SAID yesterday:

"Speaking for Chase-Dunn and myself, we're going to campaign together, vigorously. We have every intention of bringing to the attention of the voters in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties the issues confronting the district.

"We feel that three main issues are:

"1. The zoning habits of the board and its policy in disposing of surplus acreage.

"2. The rather archaic policies of the board regarding the furnishing of an adequate water supply to encourage industry. This applies mainly to the Richmond area.

"3. The water rate structure. From the water rate revenue the board has been allocating certain sums for capital outlay improvements.

"I'm not prepared to say whether this policy is good or bad. But we believe a better way would be to raise the money for this purpose through bond issues."

RICE, educational director of Local 1245 of the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, lives at 744 Calmar Street, Oakland. Chase-Dunn, a book dealer, lives at 2734 Derby Street, Berkeley.

Ward 2 consists of the easterly part of Berkeley, parts of Orinda and Lafayette, Pleasant Hill and all of Walnut Creek and Saranap. Excluded are Happy Valley in Lafayette and the northerly part of Orinda. Ward 3 is in Alameda County.

Circulation of petitions on behalf of Chase-Dunn and Rice was conducted in a whirlwind drive of less than a week in Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Richmond, Berkeley, Albany, Oakland, El Cerrito and, from San Leandro, through southern Alameda County.

New Brownie Troop Underway

Mrs. Melvin Colwell invited the following mothers to her home for the purpose of organizing a new Brownie troop recently: Mesdames Claude Maehler, D. Tyson. Colin Campbell, George Fink, Fred Switzer, G. S. Trumbly, Stanley Thomas, Daniel Popovich, and Mrs. Rothafel who was unable to attend.

Mrs. Ernest Fernest led the meeting and explained the organization of a new Brownie troop and the purpose of Girl Scouting. Mrs. Colwell is the new leader assisted by Mrs. Switzer; Mrs. Stanley volunteered to be troop committee chairman and Mrs. Tyson telephone chairman.

There are five new Brownie troops for the Glorietta and Del Rey Schools this year and all are anticipating a most successful year.

Scout Salute..

Post 300 Whirls

Fall activities of the Orinda Explorer Post 300 started off with a bang last week as boys of the Scout organization met in the Orinda Scout House.

New post officers named for the year include Jeff Rodden, senior crew leader; Joe Sheaff, deputy senior crew leader; John Hall, secretary, and Andy Johnson, sergeant-at-arms.

Participation in the Council Explorer Bass Derby, scheduled for October 1 and 2 at Joseph's Resort in Rodeo, was agreed upon unanimously.

A parents' potluck dinner is slated for Thursday, October 14, at the Community Church. Other fall possibilities include a canoe trip and beach party. A coed ski trip is planned for late January of next year.

Jeff Rodden, Joe Sheaff and Tom Veitch were elected to the Order of the Arrow, an honorary camping society.

Tour of Parks

Nine junior leaders from Boy Scout Troop 207 attended the semi-annual Junior Leader Training Conference at Parks Air Force Base held on September 18 and 19.

Those attending were Gary Battjer, Rob Anthonison, John Coates, Dave Brown, Ed Owens and Mr. Robert Owens.

Basic instruction on leadership in the Scout troop and patrol and classes on the use of maps and compass were held. The enthusiastic boys were shown movies and given a tour of the base and were fed and barracked with the regular service personnel.

In addition to Scouts from Troop 207, nearly 125 boys from the Mt. Diablo Council enjoyed the hospitality, good food and worth-while training at Parks Base.

New Brownies

At a recent gathering in the home of Mrs. F. Leibold, a new Brownie troop was organized under the direction of Mrs. E. Fernsten.

Attending were Mesdames D. Casey, H. Cunningham, A. Ayres, C. Smith, K. Nattress, H. Beasley, A. Goldsmith, J. Maga, W. Waters and C. White.

Leaders for the newly formed troop are Mrs. F. Leibold and Mrs. Lillian Ayres who are to be assisted by Mrs. J. Maga.

The new members, all third graders from Glorietta School, are Nancy Casey, Ann Cunningham, Toni Ayres, Betty Lou Leibold, Celeste Smith, Karen Nattress, Bonny Beasley, Ellen Goldsmith, Carol Ann Maga, Carol Mansonen and Ann White.

Pack 212 Picnics

Orinda Cub Scout Pack 212 held its annual get acquainted picnic at Tilden Park recently as its first meeting of the term.

The induction of Bobby Lee and Steve Eldridge and their parents into the pack and the introduction of future cub scouts Ted Schilling, Billy Cooper and Tim Pardini highlighted the business meeting that followed the picnic.

Picnicers were estimated to number from 125 to 150.

Seafarers to Meet

The Seafarers will cruise next Friday evening, October 1, to the home of Mrs. Irene Marshall, 58 Brookside Road, where dessert will be served at 7:30 o'clock.

St. Hill Home Will Be Scene Of Church Meet

At the lovely home of Mrs. Thomas N. St. Hill on Tunnel Road the first general meeting of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary will be held next Thursday at the customary 12:30 p.m. dessert time, according to Mrs. Robert Bigler, auxiliary president.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Milton Farmer, vice-president at large of the women's auxiliary board of the Diocese of California, who will address the group on the subject of Christian education.

Hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. Kenneth Morrish, Mrs. Walter Christie and Mrs. Frank Hibbard.

Plans for the bazaar to be held November 18 will be discussed and introduction of new officers will be made.

Officers of St. Stephen's Auxiliary this year in addition to Mrs. Bigler, are: Mesdames Arthur Henry, vice-president; Milton Horgan, treasurer; A. C. Hollister, corresponding secretary; A. B. Bristow Jr., recording secretary; Lynn Vivrette, Christian social relations; Robert Moorehead, hospitality; Charles Johnson, United Thank Offering; Frank Hibbard, bazaar chairman; William Arends, Altar Guild representative; David Collamer, church periodicals; and Walter E. Christie, worship chairman.

Scout 'Get Together' Dinner Monday

Twenty-three ministers, service club presidents, and heads of various organizaations of the Diablo Valley area have been invited to form new Boy Scout Troops as the feature of an organizing campaign by the Meridian District of Mt. Diablo Council.

These groups include six in Orinda, three in Lafayette, two each for Walnut Creek and Danville-Alamo areas, eight for Pleasant Hill, and one for Moraga.

"PROBABLY NOT ALL of these institutions will organize troops at this time, but we expect a mapority to be definitely interested," stated Ian McLaughlin, Walnut Creek, who is chairman of the "Together Dinner" effort.

"We are inviting each of these institutional heads to bring five men to a dinner meeting at Acalanes High School on Monday at 7:30, to learn what is involved, and to make a schedule of the required steps to bring a new troop into existence," he explained.

Two groups of men are serving as trainers of these organizing committees, McLaughlin reported. One group known as "Organizers" are learning their job under Marvin A. Moler, Pleasant Hill, chairman of the Organization and Extension Committee.

The other, called "Commissioners" are being instructed by Glenn T. Gleasan, Walnut Creek, Meridian District Commissioner. Both groups are meeting this week for training in their responsibilities.

MEN FROM THE TWO GROUPS are paired off to form two-man teams, and each team works with one of the organizing groups above mentioned.

The dinner is being served by the Mothers' Club of Troop 204, Lafayette. Cub Packs, Boy Scout Troops and Explorer Posts in the district are each making a "Good Turn" cash contribution to help pay the bill.

Meridian District will serve 4500 boys in Cubbing, Scouting and Exploring.

Another CD Siren Blast Due Monday

When you hear the sirens blast Monday morning, don't look around for a fire and don't be confused. It'll be another air raid siren test.

All sirens in the area will sound at 10 a.m.

Wherever you are, you should hear a siren. If you don't, the Contra Costa Civil Defense office would like to know, so drop a card to Civil Defense Communication Division, Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez.

Condon, Munns Speak in Homes

Democratic Congressman Robert Condon and Assembly candidate Edward Munns were the guests of honor at a series of neighborhood "coffee klatches" held in various homes in Lafayette and Orinda September 12.

Friends gathered at the homes of Messrs. and Mesdames Neil E. Falconer, E. L. Ballachey, I. Perlman, Leonard Orh, and John Glasscock, to hear Condon and Munns.

Elks Reveal Final Plans for New $70,000 Lodge

Final plans for a new $70,000 lodge for the Walnut Creek Elks Club, BPOE 1811, were reavealed this week by Exalted Ruler Robert Johnson.

Containing some 6000 square feet of floor space, the ultra-modern structure will be constructed on a four and one-half acre site at South Main Street and Creekside Drive in Walnut Creek.

Bids have been received, but must be approved by both the local club and the national lodge before construction can begin, Johnson said. It is hoped building will start in October or November.

TENTATIVE DATE for completion is April, 1955.

The redwood and used brick structure will contain three large main rooms—a combination lodge and dining room, a club room and bar, and a lounge.

About 40 by 72 feet in size, the dining room will be used as a lodge room until some future date when a separate lodge room will be added.

The club room will include a bar and game tables, while the lounge, with modern furnishings and a fireplace, will open on a terrace, through floor-to-celing glass panels.

IN ADDITION, there will be rest rooms, an office for the club secretary, a combination utility room and kitchen and basement storage space where the heating unit will be located.

Outside there will be a large parking area, a picnic and barbecue area and additional space for other recreational facilities which would be completed later.

The site will be completely landscaped and terraced, according to Johnson.

THE STRUCTURE has been designed by Harry Y. Nakahara, Martinez architect.

The building committee is headed by Frank Marshall and includes Bill Stone, Ed Boyer, C. Terence Ring, Elmer Hansen, Del Stewart, Hank Drabin, Joe Murphy, Lou Very, Phil Heraty, James McGeehon, Lyle Wainwright, Gordon Fisk and Johnson.

4-H Club Takes Prize at Fair

The Lafayette 4-H Club won fourth place at the State Fair in Sacramento for its booth depicting various phases of 4-H work, such as sheep projects.

The group was named eligible to participate in the State Fair after taking second award at the County Fair in Antioch.

Participating in the booth were Kathy Roberts, Dianna and Gail Davidson, Anna Oldano, Ed Mjlsnos, Sue Hall, Judy Phelps, Dexter Lewis and Diane Fekete.

The group is under the leadership of Mesdames E. C. Phelps, Will Hall, Fred Davidson and Lou Fekete.

Mary Souza Returns From Europe Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Souza of Lafayette left September 13 on a motor trip to Canada and Wisconsin.

Mary Nunes Souza returned this week from a two month vacation spent abroad studying music and art. The Foreign Study Tour consisted of 63 members. The members particularly enjoyed the Edinburgh and Salzburg Musical Festivals, and the opera in the 2,000 year old arena in Verona, the oldest city in Northern Italy.

Mrs. Souza reports that in her opinion Europe looks very prosperous compared to her previous visit in 1948.

In London, tour members were urged to bring back a message to America that jobs were available to all, and that many occupations were short hundreds of workers.

Tour members were surprised to be told that the United States was trying to plunge the world into World War 3.

Mrs. Souza is starting her piano teaching this week.

U.C. Faculty Club Honors Sturgeon

George B. Sturgeon, 3593 Boyer Circle, was honored last week with an honorary membership in the University of California Faculty Club.

A letter from Sturla Einarsson, secretary, said, "It is my privilege to inform you that the directors of the Faculty Club at their regular meeting in September voted unanimously to elect you an honorary member of the club, a status which requires the payment of no dues.

"The directors have asked me to notify you of the election, to express their hope that you will find it possible to accept, and to welcome your continued participation in the activities of the Faculty Club."

Bob Nicolai Now Stationed in Maryland

Johnson of Cave City, Arkansas, is serving aboard the U. S. Naval Air Test Center at Patuxent River, Maryland in the communications department.

Stanley School Parents to Meet

Parents of the M. H. Stanley School are looking forward to the first meeting of their organization this school year, to be held Tuesday, 8 p.m., in the school auditorium.

The Parents' Club, in conjunction with the school administration, will take this opportunity to hold an Open House so that everyone can see the new additions to the school.

A short meeting will be held, during which, Duncan Knudsen, club president, will introduce the officers and chairmen for the year.

MISS JANE PATORIO, principal, will introduce the Lafayette School Board members and the administrative and general staff of the Stanley School.

The meeting will then be adjourned to give the parents ample time to make a complete tour of the school buildings. Refreshments will be served.

THE NEW OFFICERS of the M. H. Stanley School Parents' Club are:

President, Duncan Knudsen; first vice-president, Mrs. Jack Cullen; second vice-president, Miss Jane Patorio; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gus Noack; recording secretary, Mrs. Orville Sammann; parliamentarian, Mrs. Ken Hallstone; treasurer, Roy Markle; auditor, Mike Mazaika; hospitality, Mrs. Laurenct Ulrick; Ways and means, Mr. and Mrs. John Athanson; publicity, Mrs. A. J. Rinne; membership, Howard Tharsing; refreshments, Mrs. Robert Lockey; monthly sales, Mrs. Gilbert Meyers; rag drive, Mrs. Mike Mazaika; student body dances, Mrs. William Hall; motion picture, Mrs. Ralph Wilson; parent education, Mrs. Duncan Knudsen.

G. C. Coffee Wins Card Award

G. C. Coffee of Los Arabis Road came home with several awards from the recent Reno Horseless Carriage Tour.

He took second prize in the $2000 and over (original cost of car) 1912-1915 class with his 1914 Lozier.

And as a final touch, he took second prize for the best dressed man. "Old" car enthusiasts gathered from every part of the country to discuss restoration and operation of the automotive relics.

Authentic vintage costumes were worn by all participants driving the gaslight era cars.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Lutheran

Rocky Boy Indian Mission Night, this evening starts with a dinner from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. for the people of the community followed by a program, movies and slides at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Moraga Highway and Orchard Road.

Curt Silver, 227 Orchard Road will be the master of ceremonies as he calls upon the members of the Sunday School, the Luther League, the Women's Guild and the pastor to take their respective parts in the program which will give the facts and work of the Rocky Boy Mission. This mission is located on the Rocky Boy reserve at Box Elder, Montana which is near Havre.

Rally Sunday, this Sunday, will conclude the vacations and absences from Sunday School and church. Rally Sunday is the beginning of the fall program, the start of the new Sunday School classes and a call for all Christians to rally to their work.

The division between the primary, junior and adult department of the Sunday School will be established. New classes will be organized. The fall rolls of honor will be filled out and posted. The sermon, "Be not Deceived, God is not Mocked," will be preached by the pastor, Edward R. Andersen at the 8 and the 11 a.m. services.

The Women's Guild meets Tuesday evening at 8 with Mrs. Shirley Newfarmer of Lafayette, a collector of cochina dolls and an authority on the Indians of the southwest, speaking on the subject, "Indian Customs and Traditions."

Women of the community are invited to attend.

Lutheran

"The One Thing Needful" is the topic Pastor Merle Tollefson has chosen for Sunday morning at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette.

Morning worship services are now at 9:30 and 11. Sunday School through third grades is simultaneously at 11. Nursery provided. Grades four through high school, as usual, have 9:30 Sunday School.

There will be a reception for new members Sunday evening at 6 with a potluck dinner and showing of a new film "All That I Have."

Thursday is Women's Day at the church. Bible class is held at 10. "What God Expects of Me," is the topic, followed by a sandwich lunch for "willing workers," where needs for Mission Hospitals will be worked on and other projects are offered.

Methodist

"If You Like Your Friends Only" will be the title of the Rev. Chester R. Lewis' sermon at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

The Youth Choir will sing at the 8:30 service and the Adult Choir will sing at the 11 o'clock service. Both choirs are directed by George Shoptaugh.

Mrs. Shoptaugh will be organist at both services.

Sunday School will be held at 9:30 a.m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m. Sunday. This is a group of high school age students.

Last Sunday evening about 40 members of the local MYF were hosts to some 30 MYFers from Stockton. Volley ball and pingpong were played. A discussion on the recent World Council of Churches meeting in Evanston, Ill., was led by Peggy Boevers and Viretta Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left Tuesday for the Metropolitan District Retreat at Mt. Hermon. The retreat opened Wednesday and ends today. The Lewises expect to be back home today.

Covenant

The Rev. G. Raymond White of Lafayette Covenant Church will continue a series of sermons on the First Epistle of John at the 11 a.m. worship Sunday.

The topic will be "The Fellowship We Enjoy."

Topic of the evening worship at 7 p.m. will be "The Beatitudes of Revelation."

Young people will meet at 5:30 p.m. Bible school will be held at 11:45 a.m. Choir rehearsal will be held Wednesday 7:15 p.m., and midweek service at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Children Aid Polio Drive

The Contra Costa Polio Fund is richer this week due to the enterprising nature of several very young Lafayette business people.

Primary commodity involved was lemonade, but there may have been just a touch of mild extortion present also.

Lexi Adams, 10, and her sister Vicki, 4; Sandra Flynn and Dixie Lee and a Springer Spaniel named Bo set up a lemonade stand on Mt. View Drive.

IT WAS STRICTLY a business affair. Money for the purchase of lemons came from savings banks. The first day the group took in about 90 cents and Loy Adams, 916 Mt. View Drive, father of Lexi and Vicki, generously offered to match anything they earned for the polio fund.

Then sales began to boom and several other youngsters joined the parade, including Kenneth Ball, Donald Swenson, Carol and Harry Curtis and others who set up a branch in front of Super Saver Market. Commodities by this time included cookies and popcorn.

WHEN THE DUST finally settled, the children had collected $23.50

Parents who proudly sponsored the project, but let the children carry it out on their own initiative, are Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flynn, 912 Mt. View Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ball, 947 Mt. View Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Swenson, West Road and Mrs. Bernice Mills.

BLACK'S ORINDA

Variety of Booths, Fun, Planned for Fall Festival

Bigger and better than ever.

That's what everyone is saying about the coming "Fall Festival" at the Orinda Community Church. The date is Saturday, October 2, and the starting time is 1 p.m.

Pony rides, Cotton Candy, snow cones, hot dogs, doll clothes, puppet show, magic show, movies and games — all with prizes — will keep the children happy.

There will be a bake sale, white elephant booth, card booth and a handicraft booth. All the booths will be full of hand-made articles and aprons termed "perfect" for Christmas gifts.

A "Chuck Wagon" supper will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Special entertainment includes Secular music by the Choir, the Orindian Band, the Baguettes and the Orinda Hawaiian Dancers. The program starts at 8 p.m. with dancing to follow the entertainment.

Planning of games is being handled by Lucille Phelps and Jean Watkins. The Chuck Wagon supper committee is headed by Millie Twining and Elsie Harmon. In charge of coordination of booths is Jane Brobeck. Marion Brown is arranging the festival, while publicity chairman is Barbara Wayne.

Eighteen Localites Back From Big Sur

The E. P. Waynes, W. W. Swedbergs and D. L. Watkins' of Orinda and the Ken Kopenhagens of Lafayette spent the weekend of September 11 camping in Big Sur country. The three families, including children, totaling 18 in all, enjoyed the trip to its fullest.

Church Guild Holds Lunch

The Women's Guild of Orinda Community Church met in Fellowship Hall last week at which time a delicious luncheon was served by members of Section 1 under the chairmanship of Carrie Brown.

The hall and tables were decorated with beautiful flower and fruit arrangements executed by Charlotte Chapple and Nettie Blalock.

The meeting opened with inspirational devotions by Mrs. W. M. Brobeck. Highlight of the afternoon was Mrs. Stuart LeRoy Anderson's review of the book "Unto Good Land." Mrs. Anderson kept her audience enthralled with her sympathetic and dramatic telling of the story of a group of Swedish immigrants.

The business meeting was conducted by Guild President Mrs. Robert Brown who named committees for the Fall Festival to be held October 2.

Church Group To Elect Officers

Election of officers will be held by members of the Young People's Fellowship of St. Stephen's Episcopal church Sunday evening at their weekly 7 o'clock meeting in the undercroft of the church on Via Las Cruces.

Plans will be made for attendance at the semi-annual meeting of the Oakland Convocation of the House of Young Churchmen to be held October 3 at St. Clement's Episcopal church in Berkeley.

It is expected that approximately 25 Orinda members will be present at the Convocation which will comprise a business session at 4 p.m., worship hour at 5 p.m., supper at 6 o'clock and dancing until 10 p.m.

All Episcopal churches in the East bay area will be represented, under the leadership of the Reverend Malcolm Minor, rector of St. Andrew's church in Oakland.

The Reverend John Henry Thomas, rector of St. Clement's, will preside as host.

Fowlers Return

Mrs. E. J. Fowler Jr. and four children enjoyed their summer spent at the dairy farm of the E. J. Fowlers in Oshkosh, Wis.

Go to Church Sunday

Mormon Meeting

All men and boys holding the Priesthood are requested to be at a special meeting Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Thomas Stuart Ferguson of 1 Irving Lane, president of the Orinda Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon).

Members of both the Aaronic and Melchizedek Priesthoods are urged to be present.

Sunday school services will be at the usual time, 1:15 p.m., and the Children's Primary Association, which commenced its fall and winter work last week, meets at 4 p.m. Thursdays. Both these services are held in facilities of the Community Church.

Community

A friendly welcome is assured to all newcomers attending either of the two Sunday morning service hours of the Orinda Community Church, according to the minister, Rev. Fred Morrow.

Entire families may attend at 9:30 a.m., with opportunity for parents to observe or assist in departments or to participate in the adult class Sunday by Dr. Hugh Vernon White of Berkeley.

The period begins with a chapel service for youth and adults. A large staff of officers and teachers will be on hand to carry on graded religious instruction.

The worship of God is carried out in the free church tradition at 11 o'clock, with the aid of a mixed choir conducted by Margaret Popovich. In the conduct of the service the Rev. Mr. Morrow is assisted by Ray L. Welles, senior theological student who gives leadership to the church's program for and with young people.

Sunday's choral anthem is announced as Robson's "Holy Spirit."

Around Orinda

By LOIS PIXLEY
CL 4-2623

Now that autumn has finally arrived, we have signs all around reminding us that it is here to stay for awhile . . . the obvious silence in the shopping areas on football Saturdays, the fact that no one — but NO ONE — congregates at the Park Pool on these lovely fall days, school buses once again taking over the highways and byways, and the gentle reminder that there are only 80 shopping days left until Christmas.

SCHOOL DAZE

Speaking of school buses, here is a story about one bus, its unfortunate driver and various young passengers.

On the first day of school, kindergarten children are supplied with name tags to wear which indicate the general area in which they live and their addresses. This is supposed to help the bus drivers deposit children at their proper stations after school is out. However, one day the name tags only made matters worse, thanks to the little hellions.

To the chagrin of the driver, his little passengers had SWITCHED name tags; consequently, he had to leave the remaining riders at their various homes, something which is rarely done. It must have been a long and painstaking operation. Ah, what a subtle set of humorists we are reaping.

PATIO WARMING

Forty-four neighbors of Donna Maria Way celebrated a patio warming on September 12 at the home of Marjorie and John Wilkinson. It was in the form of a cocktail party which took place on the Wilkinsons brand new 1400 sq. ft. patio.

The female contingent looked lovely in their dressy cottons, and we hear the hors d'oeuvres were equally as attractive.

A new birthday present in the Wilkinson family, a portable phonograph, made the crowd conducive to dancing. Donna Maria Way must really have been jumping that evening.

p.s. John and Marjorie are the owners of Wilkinsons Resaurant in Berkeley.

The Azalea Branch of the Children's Hospital had a swim-cocktail party at the home of the Clayton Van Wagners' on Saturday, September 11.

3 RAYS EQUAL 1 ANTELOPE

Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Meyer of Overhill Road have returned recently from a successful antelope hunting trip in Laramie, Wyoming. Now this can get confusing, so follow closely.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Meyer of Hayward who have a son, Ray A. Meyer, well known sportsman in Laramie. Ray A. Meyer acted as hunting guide, because one does not hunt antelope without a guide.

Conclusion: Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Meyer of Hayward and Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Meyer of Laramie, Wyoming helped Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Meyer of Orinda bag a 10 pound antelope whose head is on display at 222 Overhill Drive.

The Walter Ammon and Raymond Currie families visited with the John Everetts' at their summer home in Feather Falls.

HOLD THAT LINE

Something different on the party line took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Rose. The ingredients were tin cans used as glasses plus pie plates into which beef stew was ladled from a huge black iron pot set in the fireplace, and the end product was a unique "hobo" party.

What next? Well, Master Greg Louis celebrated his second birthday last August 26, and his guests included Orindans Patty Madison and Billy Gravelle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard have recently returned from an Oregon vacation which was highlighted by the Shakespeare Festival in Ashland.

FISH STORY

On a recent excursion to a local pond where real trout can be caught for a real price, Catherine Elmore, accompanied by Maureen Hudachek, made a wager to the pondkeeper, or the pondkeeper made a wager with Catherine . . . I still haven't figured this one out.

Nevertheless, the wager was that if Mrs. Elmore could catch a fish with her bare hands, Mr. Pondkeeper would present it to her gratis. So Catherine, with her protective coloration, crept up to the fish pond, put her hand in the water and pulled it out with a nine inch trout. Fish story?

SUN SHINERS

This piece of news really rates page one. It all began last June when Larry Hunt of Orinda was stricken with polio. He was taken to Children's Hospital in San Francisco where he spent about two months. He was finally released from the hospital in August.

The surprise of being cured so quickly had a wonderful ending.

Shortly after his arrival home, Larry awakened from his nap one afternoon and found, to his surprise, that a group of his young friends had arranged a real welcome home party in his honor. They had pooled their resources, gone to the store by themselves, purchased favors AND Larry's favorite kind of ice cream. Their next step was to decorate the patio at Larry's home with their balloons and favors and best of all, themselves.

What a wonderful awakening it was for Larry Hunt who had the surprise party of his life. The pals who were responsible include Jim Rose, Don Woodcock, Steve Bottjer, Don Hill and Bill Little.

The Orinda Junior Woman's Club coffee which was held at Lorena Louis' home on Van Ripper Lane on September 18 could have been staged for two reasons. First, in honor of the prospective new members who will be joining the club, and two, in honor of the attractive new addition to the Louis domicile . . . a new back porch.

The combination of Orinda Juniors and their guests on Lorena's new back porch made the affair a delightful one.

Orinda Swimmers Place in Sacramento Jr. Olympics

Competing at the Junior Olympic Championships, held at Sacramento September 11 and 12; four Orinda swimmers won Junior Olympic Championship Awards.

John Rinne, competing in the Boys 10 and under backstroke event, won handily over a large field of Northern California swimmers with a very good time of 38.7 seconds.

In the Boys 10 and Under free-style relay event, Orinda won again in an exciting race. This team composed of Wayne Webster, Dave Texdahl, John Rinne and Bob Boyle nosed out the San Leandro Beavers team to win their Championship Awards.

IN ADDITION THE following Orindans journeyed to Sacramento and placed as follows:

Dave Texdahl, fourth place in the Boys 10 and under 50 yard butterfly event; Joyce Bailey, fifth place in the Girls 10 and under backstroke event, 50 yards; Ed Rinne, fourth place in the Boys 13 and 14 50 yard backstroke event and third place in the Boys 13 and 14 100 yard breaststroke event; Bob Boyle, second place in the Boys 10 and under 50 yard freestyle event; Dixon Farmer, fifth place in the Boys 13 and 14 50 yard freestyle event.

This event closed out the season for the Orinda Park Team. All members of the swim team are eagerly looking forward to next year when Orinda expects to have an even more successful season.

BOB EDWARDS, their outstanding young coach has left Orinda to return to finish his last year at UCLA. Edwards who is majoring in physical education will complete work for his master's degree in education and receive his administrative credentials.

October 8, the Orinda Park, Inc., will hold their annual meeting at which the board will give its annual report and new members to the board of directors will be elected.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

AND SO ON SEPTEMBER 11 the S.S. Dixie Belle went hurtling past the Country Club pool (having just escaped from Cascade Lake by way of the viaduct under Camino Sobrante, no doubt — or does that go through, probably not) with bales of cotton and ties roped on her bow and that egg beater thingamabob on her rear which provides river boats with push and a wake.

The Dixie Belle surveyed the antics going on around the lawns and terraces and liked what she saw — so — she tooted one last toot and tied up for the night right smacko by the bath house to watch the landed gentry for the evening.

THE GENTRY, INCIDENTALLY, was snappily attired because the evening, though moonlit, had overtones of Autumn—all crisposity (prefer that to "crispness" or the unyielding "chill" — never heard of it before but like Dior we want to be original).

And speaking of Dior, he would have been tickled to pieces over the local coats and vests, because the feeling of the evening was for straight lines, spicy tweeds and a tailored modishness far modisher than most.

And the well dressed male is wearing . . .

For instance — Mr. George Hauerken was seen dancing the Hokey Pokey wearing a blond jacket of unusual textured fabric brought back from a recent trip to South America. Walter Boysen was sporting a salt and pepper tweed with the pepper coming in larger spots than usual. Aubrey Sweet wearing salt and pepper all right enough but with definite overtones of nutmeg. (Sweet Jr. incidentally turned up in a get-up calculated to make Dior shudder with the ague, and Stephan Payne, his co-partner in the diving exhibition was wearing a garment of printed design causing everyone to shudder with the cold.)

Dr. Stephen Jensen in a two toned outfit, Maynard Buehler in light jacket and smoking a pipe. Joseph Lang hit a more somber note from the chin down, but not from the chin up of course, Mr. Lang being ever smiling and affable. Beach Dean and Hugh McIntyre looking decidedly "San Francisco" in Navy tailleurs. Frank Wright appeared in warm earth shades while Gil Calles was broadcasting over the mike in tender tones of beige.

Other tweeds were Messieurs Clay Sorrick, Phipps Rasmussen, Carl Stanley, Ralph Hart, Fred Holmes, and Dr. William Baughman. Two outfits of note were modeled by Mr. Fred Federighi in white over Navy instead of the other way around, and John Stoffel who combined plaid with salt and pepper — and/or a touch of nutmeg too. Ladies were invited to attend — so they did.

And thanks to Tommy Easterbrook!

And more about men —new nominee for membership in the Good Deed Club. On September 10 a hurried housewife was motoring down Miner Road unaware that she was carrying, atop her cargo department, one bath towel, one box of soap powder, and one dog collar.

The young had been bathing poochie in the driveway and had parked their equipment on the rear of the ladies car. By the time she turned onto San Pablo Highway everything else was gone but the collar, complete with license tag and name plate. It sailed off into the bushes and, slightly later, Tommy Easterbrook came trudging down the road, spied the collar, took same home and called the owner. The owner, with a dastardly fright of the dog catcher, was delighted and grateful for the thoughtfulness of Master Easterbrook.

HEARTS AND FLOWERS — the former on the mantel surrounded by the latter and the gross total sprinkled with sparkles — all to announce the engagement of Joan Hamilton and Jack Setzer. The cocktail party was held at the home of the John French's on September 11.

"The "Deep South" bounded by Camino Sobrante to the east, a waterfall on the north, side, the Orinda Country Club on the west and a couple of tennis courts to the south will be the scene of a party to be given by the Lombardy Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay, around the pool, tomorrow evening, September 25. A steak barbecue, Bud Williams' orchestra, surprise entertainment and, no doubt, a flock of southern accents you never heard before from your friends and neighbors.

Early reservation holders are Messers. and Mesdames Robert Dashiel, H. K. Baldwin, Harold Swanson, Irving Grundel, Leo Lemire, Robert Hampton, Andrew McGlynn, William Houston, Fred Crawshaw, and Drs. and Mrs. William Hanford, Don Parle White and Kenneth St. Clair.

Here and there with the travelers

Couple of sardines home from Bee Lake — no, no — couple of Bees home from Sardine Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Bee had a delightful vacation at the Lake but are home by now. The Clinton Easterbrooks are home from Fallen Leaf.

Trip postponed — the Eugene Shurtleffs who were going to Europe with the Eisenhower Fellowship group have changed plans and will probably go next year instead.

Anniversary party — the Willard Millers at Alta Lake with several friends.

The A. S. Ballingers are home from Tahoe and the Alden Macombers are in New York. The Robert Spotts are home from Phillips on American River, the Edward Maloneys are home from Tahoe and Mrs. Wilson Field is visiting in Seattle.

Come and look as if you understand it all

The Art and Garden Show which closes tonight at the Artist's Market in the Werness Building on Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette provides "an opportunity for more people to become acquainted with the work of local artists and to live with types of art toward which they might be negatively inclined because of unfamiliarity. Rentals (of the pictures exhibited, are available at one per cent of the purchase price, plus insurance for three months."

Now there is a right constructive plan— but even if you don't want to do that you can go up until 9 p.m. and enjoy the paintings of local artists as well as the works of the Bay Area's foremost contemporary painters. There are garden alcoves by six prominent landscape architects, sculpture, ceramics, hand weaving, jewelry, printed and silk screened textiles. If you just had your hair done or are wearing a new hat you may have your portrait done right on the spot.

DUEL IN THE SUN, FEMININE STYLE: Being ladies they used golfing irons instead of shooting irons but the fever ran high all last week during the annual fomen's Championship Tournament at Orinda Country Club.

Mrs. Hermine Small won the Championship flight but also the low gross with a 79. She went staggering home carrying two magnificent prizes, and this isn't the first time she has done that sort of thing. Runner-up was Mrs. George Parker.

Second flight winner, Mrs. Ford Tussing; runner-up, Mrs. Jack Scammell; third, Mrs. Edgar Stewart and Mrs. Alfred Ried; fourth, Mrs. Neil Taylor and Mrs. Eugene Payne; fifth, Mrs. Allen Ayres and Mrs. Arthur O'Kane.

In the defeated class, first winner with a low net of 73 was Mrs. James Sharp. Second was Mrs. John Folliard. Mrs. Edward Dart was third, Mrs. Ritchie Smith fourth and Mrs. James Stone fifth.

During their recent trip around the world Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bentley visited Mr. and Mrs. Ove Fennow, owners of the huge Kuba Importing Company in Copenhagen. The Fennows, here a few weeks ago, were entertained by the Bentleys at their Walnut Creek home, "El Rancho Las Flores," where 50 guests arrived for a swim and supper party.

That is all.

'Only the Blind' Continue Apologies For Condon – Bull

Saying that only "the blind and ostriches" can continue as apologists for Congressman Robert L. Condon, Craig Bull of Walnut Creek, former FBI agent, last night urged Sixth Congressional District voters to elect John Baldwin.

Last spring Bull sought the Republican nomination for Congress from the Sixth District, but was defeated by Baldwin.

Speaking to the Richmond-El Cerrito Young Republican Clubs, Bull said Condon is more interested in protecting Communists in the U. S. than he is in protecting U. S. citizens from Communists.

HE ALSO SAID that Condon was arrested as a drunk in 1933 and twice in 1937 in Berkeley, once in 1939 in Washington, D. C., once in 1941 in Seattle, and for drunken driving once in 1948 in Oakland, and for being drunk in or about an auto in 1950 in Berkeley.

"All this is pitiful but in your Congressman inexcusable," he said.

Bull, who is general chairman of the Baldwin for Congress speakers' bureau, told his audience that he resigned his FBI post in the hope of running against Condon.

"I didn't want to have a man of Condon's ilk representing me in the House of Representatives. John Baldwin was selected by the Republicans of both counties in our district to take up the fight against the incumbent, and he is an excellent choice. When elected, he will be one of the most able men in Congress," he said.

BULL CONTRASTED Baldwin's record as a man who has passed the most thorough loyalty checks with Condon's record as a man who is under an AEC restraint.

He raised five pointes he termed "puzzling" if there is no justification for the AEC action under which the incumbent is not permitted to witness an atomic bomb test.

He said Condon waited two months after the AEC imposed its ban before protesting, then failed to protest until a newspaper reporter broke the story.

He waited eight months before seeking a hearing, then he failed to go before the House with a resolution which would have brought a hearing competent to judge his fitness to remain in the House. Instead he sought a hearing before a joint committee of the House and Senate. That committee, according to Senator Pastore, a Democrat from Rhode Island, had no power to judge his qualifications, he continued.

CONDON REFUSED to go before the House Un-American Activities Committee under oath when invited to do so. This was after ex-Communist Dave Blodgett testified that Condon had attended a "closed" Communist meeting in 1948, Bull said.

He made a personal privilege speech before the House to deny all charges, but refused to yield during his speech so that he could be questioned from the floor of the House, he continued.

He called a press conference after that speech, and then refused to answer so many questions a reporter asked him why he called the conference in the first place, Bull added.

"According to his public statements, Condon considers the Communist party a political party. He and you know differently. Communism is not politics. It is treason," Bull said.

HE ADDED, "Should liberals deem his actions appropriate, they must willing to concede that Congressmen Shelly, Hagen and Moss are all liberal Democrats from California. They and you must then find something strange in the fact that on nine anti-subversive measures before the '54 session of Congress, Shelly voted 'yes' on six, Moss voted 'yes' on seven, and Hagen voted 'yes' on all nine. Yet Condon was 'unrecorded' on seven of these bills and voted 'no' on the other two."

Bull also said that, according to a letter from Admiral Carl Espe to all Naval installations, an FBI report indicates that Condon was reported to have been a Communist Party member between 1930 and 1935.

He also noted that at the Velde hearing in San Francisco in December, 1953, ex-Communist Dave Blodgett testified that Bertram Edises and Robert Treuhaft were members of the political affairs committee of the Communist Party while they were Condon's law partners.

MORE THAN $55 MILLION IN HOMES is in the plans of the K/R organization. And more than $12 million is represented in its developments in the Alamo-Walnut Creek-Lafayette-Orinda area. Discussing the problems involved are Al Warford, Contra Costa Property Management Co.; Lawrence Canning, K/R Homes Inc., and Fred Maisel of K/R Maisel.

K/R Homes Reveals Mammoth Program

K/R Homes Inc., which operates in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, and Danville, is involved in one of the largest groups of real estate thansactions in the history of California, amounting to $55,281,300.

With three other related firms, K/R Maisel, K/R Peninsula and Contra Costa Property Management Company, the local firm is developing a host of subdivisions in several Bay Area counties.

The K/R organization cooperates with buiders in locating, planning and engineering of subdivisions and then sells the completed houses.

IN THE WALNUT CREEK-Lafayette-Alamo-Orinda area, K/R is involved in 13 subdivisions which will sell for an estimated $12,189,000.

In Lafayette, there are three subdivisions. They are Lafayette Highlands, to include 59 homes built by A. R. Muth and Sons; Lucas Manor, to include 107 homes built by Roth Development Company, and Lafayette Valley Estates No. 6, to include 46 homes by C. Dudley DeVillbiss Company.

Six tracts of the organization are located in Walnut Creek. Included are El Verano Valley, 139 homes, Wilkie Development Company; Spellacy and Arlene Gardens No. 3, Roth Development Company, 12 homes.

HEDGEWOOD MANOR, 18 homes, Newhall Scott Company; Parkmead Oaks, 37 houses, McKie Roth, and McConnell Acres, 22 homes, Leonard VerMehr.

Alamo Terrace in Alamo will include 32 homes built by Roth Development Company.

In Orinda three subdivisions are included. They are Orinda Hills No. 1, nine builders, 41 homes; Orinda Hills No. 2 and 3, 45 homes, and Orinda Oaks, 80 homes, Nels E. Carlson and Son.

Lafayette Group Rehearses Play

Lafayette Playshop, in spite of casting problems in the men's department, is in rehearsal for "Harvey," with Bob Hudson directing.

Production is planned for November 12, 13, 19 and 20 at Town Hall, Lafayette, with rehearsals at Acalanes High School.

Cast in the women's parts are Barbara Weill as Myrtle Mae Simmons, Naida Hickox as Veta Simmons, Bonnie Bosley as Kelly, Edith Lynn as Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet and Trudy Von Stieglitz as Betty Chumley.

Some men's parts are still open and will be cast at rehearsals Tuesday of Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Around Acalanes

By DIANE HILLYARD

AND HERE WE ARE

Much to the disgust of many of our students, school is once again in session. Once more one can hear the clamor of big flat feet echoing in the halls and trash cans being kicked around.

To start the year off with a bang, "Los Amigos" sponsored a get acquainted dance September 10.

"Los Amigos" is a very fine group of guys and gals who combine to make new students feel more at home around Acalanes by showing them the different rooms, classes, and offices. Needless to say "Los Amigos" means "the friends," and they really are.

Plans for the 1954-55 student directory are in full swing. This directory is a very helpful book containing names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all of the students in school. This seems to be one of the greatest things since our swimming pool.

AND ACTIVITIES

Girls' League will meet soon to plan the year's activities, which, if anything like last year's, should be very good.

G.A.A. is selling sweatshirts to be worn on cold mornings in girls' gym. Freshmen are required to buy these sweatshirts and in two or three years they will be part of the girl's regulation gym outfit.

And speaking of freshmen, we will have two seconds of silence for the 9th grade boys who are outnumbered by 50. Yep! There are 50 more girls than boys.

This has created a problem in the freshman girls' gym class as they are hanging out the windows.

And with this happy thought we will leave you until next week.

Condon Charges Baldwin With Mud-Slinging

Congressman Robert L. Condon, Democrat, 6th District, stated Tuesday that he had signed the "Code of Fair Campaign Practices," which is sponsored by a nation-wide group to eliminate irresponsible mud-slinging from political campaigns and challenged his Republican opponent, John Baldwin, to conduct his campaign "on the issues in place of rehashing slander."

Condon spoke before the Orinda Democrats at the Orinda Community Church.

Condon stated: "The Code of Fair Campaign Practices pledges a candidate to avoid the use of personal villification, character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate for his personal or family life."

"IT IS ALSO A PLEDGE against misrepresentation and distortion and the use of malicious or unfounded accusations against any candidate which aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to his loyalty or patriotism," he said.

In previous campaigns for office, "I did not at any time," Condon said, "engage in any mud-slinging or personal attacks upon my Republican opponents in these campaigns. I have no intention of using or authorizing the use on my behalf of such vicious and un-American campaign tactics."

"I do not believe that any of my Republican opponents during those campaigns can make the same statement. This includes by present Republican opponent, whom I defeated for Congress in 1952," he added.

Condon said that during the present campaign, groups of persons on behalf of his Republican opponent have engaged in the most scurrilous type of personal abuse. He added, stale discredited charges made by unnamed and unknown accusers have been revived.

THESE BASELESS accusations, Condon said, have been used against him in every one of his past campaigns, and have been fully answered under oath by Condon.

"My Republican opponent," Condon said, "apparently cannot meet me on a debate on the political issues confronting the voter. His followers therefore, in desperation have seized upon a campaign of character assassination."

"The voters of Contra Costa and Solano Counties," Condon continued, "expect a hard and vigorous campaign by both the candidates for the Democratic as well as the Republican party. They do, however, like a clean fight and will repudiate smear tactics."

Condon declared that his opponent's followers have adopted the techniques of McCarthyism. He stated that the unprincipled use of the technique of the lie, the device of surrounding a grain of truth with a shell of distortion and innuendo, and the frenzied repetition of these distorted half-truths will be repudiated by the voters.

"The real issues of this campaign," Condon stated, "are the domestic and foreign policies of the present administration. The preoccupation by the administration with the cause of big business, with the consequent neglect of small businessmen, wage earners and farm families, characterize the administration's domestic policy."

"The lack of a coherent foreign policy, the pronouncement of conflicting and sometimes dangerous statements of our position, has caused America's prestige among our natural allies in the free world to reach the lowest level in the history of our country," he said.

This irresponsibility can push us into World War III. Our foreign policy should be non-partisan, but the Republican administration has not sought, and indeed rejects, the assistance and help of the leaders in the Democratic party," he added.

KEN CARD, sad-faced comedian who will star at the Walnut Festival Follies tonight at the 1954 Walnut Festival grounds in City Park in Walnut Creek, recently returned from an Australian tour with Olson and Johnson. He has also appeared on several television shows.

Mart to Hear Clovey LaCroix

Clovey LaCroix of the Amputennis Foundation Inc. will address Contra Costa Realty Mart Breakfast at 8 a. m. Monday in El Nido Rancho, Lafayette.

Winners in the recent mart contest on rules of the organization were Adoplh DeFremery, first; Lawrence Wallace and Al Ingalls, tied for second, and Marie Carter, fourth.

Night of Harmony Tickets Selling

Tickets to "A Night of Harmony" October 9 at Acalanes High School are going fast, Chairman Clyde "Bummy" Bumgarner said yesterday.

To include barbershop quartets from the northern part of the state, the evening of entertainment is being put on by Walnut Creek Elks Lodge 1811.

A benefit for the California Cerebral Palsy fund, the show is co-sponsored by the Society for the Preservation of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America.

Also on hand will be Berkeleyanns Chapter of Sweet Adelines and a chorus, in addition to the quartet from the local lodge, which includes Bumgarner, Al Nye, Charles Aiman and Fred Steil.

An afterglow will follow the stage presentation in the Walnut Creek Veterans Memorial Hall. Tickets are now being sold by local merchants.

Women Voters to Hear Assemlyman On Liquor Proposal

Liquor control in California will be the topic of Assemblman Caspar Weinberger at an open meeting sponsored by the local League of Women Voters Monday at 8 p.m. in Concord Elementary School, 2730 Salvio Street, Concord.

Assemblman Weinberger, who headed the state subcommittee investigating alcohol beverage control, will speak on the current situation with emphasis on Proposition 3 on the November ballot to place liquor control under a director appointed by the governor in place of the present elected board.

The California League of Women Voters is supporting this proposition. Following several years of study with a view to reorganization of the executive branch of state government, the league concluded that this important state function should be removed from the Board of Equalization and placed under a governor-appointed officer in a separate department.

Assemblyman Weinberger is a Republican from the 21st District in San Francisco. He was born in San Francisco and graduated from Harvard College and Harvard School of Law.

Circuit Assembly For Jehovah's Witnesses Starts

C. W. Rieger, district representative for Jehovah's Witnesses, arrived this week to take a leading part in the "Circuit Assembly" scheduled for today, tomorrow and Sunday at the Contra Costa Fairgrounds in Antioch.

Rieger, who has jurisdiction over the congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the western states and Alaska, will lead a discussion of the ministerial activities of this organization tonight, will narrate a feature-length film, "The New World Society in Action," Saturday evening, and will discourse on the subject, "Does God Really Care?", on Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

Therapy Center Begins Program

The first in a series of staff education programs will be held at Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, 2363 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, Wednesday at 4 p. m.

Speaking to all staff members on the aims of social service in the field of rehabilitation will be Miss Lillian Wurzel, supervisor of the Medical Social Service Department, Contra Costa County Hospital.

Miss Wurzel, a resident of Walnut Creek, has a wide background in the social service field. She is graduate of UCLA School of Social Service and received her master's degree in social service administration from the University of Chicago.

Monthly staff education programs will be held at the center to help better acquaint staff members and any interested persons with allied services in the rehabilitation field.

Diablo Choral to Start Rehearsals

The Diablo Valley Choral has resumed meeting after a vacation of several months and is now busy at work with Christmas and spring concert numbers.

Meetings are held every Wednesday under the direction of Nico Snel, at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church on Oakland Boulevard.

There are a few openings in the choral. Any lady interested in joining may contact Mrs. Carl Goetz, YE 5-5770; Mrs. Charles Wright, YE 4-6674, or Mrs. Fred Dixon, YE 4-3002.

The September luncheon and business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Haight in Upper Happy Valley. Those assisting Mrs. Haight with the luncheon were Mrs. Philip Simmons, Mrs. Allan Marsan and Mrs. Vera Foss.

Heidi Chapter in First Fall Meeting

First fall meeting of Heidi Chapter of Children's Home Society, was highlightetd by the report of Mrs. Griffith Squire, general chairman for the chapter's annual fashion show entitled "Mistletoe Magic," to be held at Castlewood Country Club on November 17.

Mrs. Squire announced that the show promises to be a huge success, with exciting and unusual creations by Jobert Thane, noted Bay Area designer, who is designing gowns especially for this event.

Many of the fabrics used are hand-woven, and from start to finist, the affair will be one of the most glamorous that Heidi members have put on, she said. Funds derived from the show will go to Children's Home Society.

Models who will appear are Mesdames James Newcomb, R. B. Shepard, W. J. McGuire and Robert Jurs, Walnut Creek; Calvin Hagstrom and B. Ginsberg, Orinda; A. L. Wynne, Walnut Creek; F. McCafferey, Berkeley, and Robert Goodale, Hidden Valley, Also wearing Thane creations will be professional models, both men and women, from San Francisco.

Acting as co-chairman is Mrs. J. A. McCormic of Lafayette. Others include tickets, Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette, Lafayette; procurement, Mrs. J. M. Browning, Lafayette; benefit drawing, Mrs. E. E. Cappel, Orinda; reservations, Mrs. R. H. Lockey, Lafayette; co-ordinator, Mrs. Wiley House, Danville; program, Mrs. James Newcomb, Walnut Creek; models, Mrs. W. A. Siebert, Lafayette; grab bag, Mrs. E. and ckeck room, Mrs. G. W. Myers, Lafayette.

Tickets have been distributed to Heid members and those wishing to make reservations may call Mrs. Barnette, CLifford 4-5176.

NOW AT HOME TO FRIENDS on Bailey Road, Concord, are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gillio Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gillio of Concord and his bride is the former Marlene Eppeneder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Eppeneder of Walnut Creek. —Ted Gurney Photos

Beta Fashion Event to be Held Oct. 2

It will be a gala "Festival of Fashions" for the "Betas," the Eastbay Alumni of Epsilon Lambda Sigma, and their friends at 1 p.m. Saturday, October 2, at the El Nido Rancho.

College of Pacific's Epsilon, the oldest sorority west of the Mississippi, will welcome its guests with a smorgasbord luncheon to be followed by an afternoon of fashions from the Hill 'n Dale in Lafayette.

A small copy of Pacific's "Tommy Tiger" will be on hand to give a football flavor to the day and to assist Jane Verhage with the fashion commentary. Sharlee Smith of Lafayette will preside at the piano.

Mrs. Robert Jacobson of Lafayette is in charge of the affair from which all proceeds will go to the group's scholarship fund for a needy COP student. Committee chairmen are: Fashions, Pricilla Dewey of Walnut Creek; printing and program, Mercita Ratto of Walnut Creek; decorations, Jean Green of Danville; continuity, Peggy Mahler of Lafayette; tickets, Eleanor Bullis of Lafayette; prizes and favors, Margaret Ford of Orinda; and publicity, Jane Verhage of Oakland.

Elsie Peoples is the fashion consultant from Hill 'n Dale.

"LIVE AS WELL AS YOU LOOK" is the title of the benefit fashion and home decorating show to be given Tuesday through next Friday by branches of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay at Jackson's in Oakland. Among those busy making plans for the event are, left to right, Orinda Branch's Mrs. Vad Jelton of Happy Valley Road, Lafayette; Laurel Junior Branch's Mrs. Fenn Wilson of 120 Diablo View Road, Orinda, and Acorn Branch's Mrs. Melvin J. Carbone of 3395 Orchard Valley Lane, Lafayette. —Hal Matson Photo

North Carolinan Engaged To Michael Hurley Biggs

The engagement of Michael Hurley Biggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Harcourt Biggs of Walnut Creek, to Miss Virginia Douglas Perry was announced Sunday in the home of the bride-elect in High Point, North Carolina.

Biggs, an executive of the Capwell-Emporium Company, and his wife flew to High Point over the weekend to attend the announcement party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seborn Perry.

MICHAEL WAS graduated from Dartmouth College in June of this year and is now a second lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps stationed at Quantico, Virginia.

At Dartmouth, he was leader of the Dartmouth Sultans, an undergraduate orchestra, and a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity. He was graduated from Acalanes High School in Walnut Creek.

Michael has two brothers, Anthony, a student at University of California, and Timothy, a student at Las Lomas High School. Mrs. Harcourt Biggs, his grandmother, lives in San Francisco, while his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles Kay Turner, resides in Walnut Creek.

HIS FAMILY HAS BEEN in the San Francisco area since 1850 when his great-grandfather, Capt. William Lindsey, settled there.

Virginia is now a senior at Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts. She also attended the Tenacre Grade School of Dana Hall and was graduated from the Master's School, Dobbs Ferry on Hudson, in 1951.

A great-granddaughter of Seborn Perry, one of the founders of High Point, she made her formal debut in 1952 in Raleigh, North Carolina.

She is also a granddaughter of the late Thomas F. Wrenn, a pioneer southern financier.

IF THE DOG COULD TALK, he'd say, "Lemme go — and you folks go to the 'Deep South' party at Orinda Country Club tomorrow night!" That's just what these members of Iombardy Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, will do, too. In a playful mood during discussion of plans for the branch's party are, left to right, Mesdames Dan Carter, George Merriam, Jack Moylan, Robert Maddox and Lloyd Hecathorn. They're assuring the dog that, although barbecued delicacies will be served at the affair, he's just a skillet-balancing performer. —SUN Photo by Mattson

Miss Eppeneder Now Mrs. Gillio After Ceremony

Now at home to their friends are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gillio Jr. (Marlene Eppeneder) of 1799 Bailey Road, Concord.

The Walnut Creek girl and the Concord man were married September 11 at a Nuptial Mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Walnut Creek.

DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Eppeneder of 2760 Larkey Lane, Marlene wore a gown of lace and tulle and a fingertip veil flowed from a crown of pearls.

She carried a bouquet of bouvardia and lily of the valley over a white prayer book.

Her college classmate, Shelia Sturm of Oakland, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were another classmate, Barbara Bradley of Oakland, and Jacqueline Gillio of Concord, a sister of the benedict.

William Olson of Oakland was best man and ushers were George Valerio of Oakland, a cousin of the groom, and Herbert von Rusten of Oakland.

THOMAS' NIECE, Patty D'Anquino, was flower girl and George Eppeneder, Marlene's brother, was ring bearer.

More than 300 persons gathered at the IDES Hall on Boulevard Way to offer congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds before they embarked on a Carmel honeymoon.

A graduate of St. Elizabeth's High School in Oakland, Thomas is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gillio of Euclid Avenue, Concord.

He served two years in the US Navy after graduation and, on discharge, he attended East Contra Costa Junior College and San Francisco State College. He is now employed by Sunbeam Bakery Company.

Marlene was graduated from Holy Names Central High School in Oakland and also attended Holy Names College in Oakland.

Miss Welch Troth Told

At a family dinner Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit S. Welch of 950 Reliez Station Road, Lafayette, the engagement of their daughter, Margie, to Ron Holloway of Bay City, Michigan, was announced.

A wedding November 20 in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Walnut Creek, is being planned by the couple. Matron of honor will be the bride-elect's sister-in-law, Mrs. Tamme Welch, and bridesmaids will be Carol Palko of Walnut Creek and Nancy Neilson of Orinda.

Margie was graduated from Acalanes High School in June, 1953, and was a member of Girl's Athletic Association while there. She attended East Contra Costa Junior College last year.

Ron is the son of the late A. O. Holloway and Mrs. H. Schemm of Bay City. He was graduated from Bay City Central High School in 1949 and has served in the Air Force in Japan for two years. He is now stationed at Travis Air Force Base.

Alamo Women

The Alamo Women's Club will hold a rummage sale October 8 and 9 and a potted plant sale October 27, it was announced this week.

Live-Well Show Next Week Will Benefit Hospital

"Live As Well As You Look" is the engaging title of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay benefit show which will be held Tuesday through next Friday, 8:30 p.m. each day. This is the sixth annual presentation of the event which was originated by Harry Jackson.

The show has come to be called the "live" show — which has a special connotation because of the "live" projects of the Children's Hospital, which the proceeds of the show aid.

Many new ideas of home decorating and "living" in general will be incorporated into this show, which will be held at Jackson's Furniture Store in Oakland. A Pacific Pavilion is being built for staging the show.

One of the highest points of the show will be the exhibit of "Fruits, Flowers and Things,"

COMMENTATOR for the show will be Jean Christensen, interior decorator. Refreshments will be provided by Trade Vic's of Oakland.

Tickets may be obtained from any branch member or by calling the offices of the branches, OLympic 2-9202. "Fruits, Flowers and Things" will be open during store hours and from 7 o'clock on in the evening, admission 75 cents. General admission to the "live" show is $1.50.

St. Mary's Freshman Dance Scheduled

A traditional social event sponsored each year by the St. Mary's College sophomore class, the "Freshman Welcome Dance" will be held October 9 at the Leamington Hotel in Oakland, according to Robert J. Athey, sophomore president.

Athey is being assisted with arrangements by William A. MacGillivray of San Marino and Robert J. Ulses of Oakland.

Alan Winslow Bride at Home In Berkeley

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Winslow have shared this happy title for just one month, having been wed in Wyoming in August. They now are busy setting up housekeeping in their Berkeley home at 2900 Regent Street.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil L. Winslow of 31 Charles Hill Road in Orinda, Alan and his pretty bride, the former Peggy Jeanne Cottom, exchanged nuptial vows in the rustic but scenicly beautiful Chapel of the Transfiguration in Grand Teton National Park, Moose, Wyoming.

Alan, who at one time was employed in the national park, selected the chapel for his marriage because of its glorious setting among nature's beauties, a perfect backdrop for his lovely bride.

Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Cottom of Bakersfield where she attended local schools and was chosen honored queen of Job's Daughters. She attended the University of Southern California, where she was a member of Chi Omega, and is currently attending the University of California, where she will complete her work as an architect major this fall.

THE YOUNG COUPLE share many interests. Alan, a graduate of Dartmouth College in 1949, holds his degree in landscape architecture from the University of California in Berkeley.

He is a teaching assistant at the university this term in landscape architecture and also is continuing on the staff of Ned S. Rucker, prominent landscape architect who has his offices in North Oakland. Alan is affiliated with Sigma Nu Fraternity.

BOTH THE WINSLOW and Cottom families attended the ceremony at which the Vicar Rev. William Thomas officiated. A reception in honor of the justweds was held immediately following the ceremony at Wrot Hotel in Jackson, Wyo.

Gay Hawkins of Washington, D. C. served as maid of honor and Robert McConaughy III of Salt Lake City, Utah, stood with his friend as best man.

Juniors to Host New Members

The Walnut Creek Junior Woman's Club is planning to entertain prospective new members at a whist party Tuesday evening at the Walnut Creek Woman's Clubhouse.

In charge of preparations for the evening will be Mrs. Robert Wise, program chairman.

Santa Maria Branch Maps Fall Program

The first fall meeting of the Santa Maria Branch of the Junior Guild of Providence Hospital was held at the Orinda home of Mrs. William G. Robinson Tuesday evening.

Plans for fall activities were discussed.

DURING THE SUMMER, members of the group have been sewing baby clothes for the children's clinic of Providence Hospital. This is one project which is continued throughout the year.

Another project is to contribute toys for a toy box which is maintained in the waiting room of the clinic.

IN THE NEXT FEW months all efforts of the group will be directed toward a Christmas Festival, the main event of the season, to be held in December.

This will be a cooperative effort of all the branches and will be the largest fund raising activity of the year.

MRS. LOUIS M. FEKETE and Mrs. John T. Heuer are co-chairmen of the affair from the Santa Maria Branch.

All the members of the group will spend their time this fall sewing and making articles to be sold at the Christmas Festival.

Alamo Meeting On Monday for Linnet Auxiliary

Linnet Auxiliary to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will hold its regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Arch Campbell on Gaywood Road, Alamo, Monday at 11 a.m.

President Mrs. Elwood P. Laws will preside at the session.

Forty active members of Linnet unit will be present and they have invited associate members of the the group to meet with them for luncheon around the pool at the Campbell home. Mrs. W. P. Pruess of Vine Lane will assist Mrs. Campbell as co-hostess.

Members are asked to bring men's and boy's clothing to the meeting by Mrs. John Clark, merchandising chairman for the Thrift Shop for the month of October.

The main business of the meeting will be reports on the operation of the Thrift Shop, located on East Street across from Renchhold Chevrolet Company in Walnut Creek.

All profits of sales benefit the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center in its work with the physically handicapped adults and children of the Central Contra Costa area.

Carola Courtright Engaged

A winter wedding is in the offing for two young local people who announced their betrothal on Saturday at the bride-elect's sorority house near the University of California campus.

Miss Carola Courtright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Courtright of 10 Ardilla Road, Orinda, passed the traditional box of candy at the Kappa Alpha Theta house in announcing her engagement to Mr. Bruce Harding.

Although Carola is not now a student at the university, she plans to return in the near future to resume work in the art department, where she was enrolled as a junior until last spring.

The Courtrights are active in several local organizations and Mr. Courtright is a past president of the Orinda Lions Club.

The benedict-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Harding of Crest Avenue and Danville Highway, Walnut Creek, where Mr. Harding is well known as president of the Pleasanton Bank.

Bruce graduated from the Berkeley campus last June with a B.S. degree in agricultural economics and was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. Since that time he has been employed in San Bernardino in the State Agricultural Department.

A definite wedding date has not been set as yet, but both Carola and Bruce hope to become Mr. and Mrs. before Christmas.

Shadelands is Chosen by WC Junior Women

The Walnut Creek Junior Woman's Club chose Shadelands School for cerebral palsey children again as their main philanthropy project at thier first meeting fo the year recently.

Plans are being made by the philanthropy chairmen, Mrs. Forrest Wilson, and Mrs. John Messer, to purchase a slide for the school.

The Ways and Means Chairmen, Mrs. Howard Parsons and Mrs. Edward Abbey, are planning several projects this year as a means of raising funds for the school, and other philanthropy projects. This first benefit will be a Flower Arrangement Tea in November.

Officers leading the club this year are: Mrs. Floyd Burror, president; Mrs. Robert Wise, vice president; Mrs. Raymond Fasanaro, recording secretary; Mrs. William McGeehon, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Tague, auditor; Mrs. Paul Bonilla, parliamentarian, and Mrs. D. C. Bell, advisor.

Barbara Lindquist Marries Seabee

Now living in Rhode Island are the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Henderson (Barbara Ann Lindquist) who were joined in matrimony last week in Menlo Park.

Daughter of Mrs. James L. Acree of 1820 Bonanza Street, Barbara has lived in Walnut Creek most of her life and graduated from Acalanes High School. She also attended the University of California.

Mrs. Marjorie Frederick of Oakland was matron of honor and Betty Lindquist and Nancy Lunsford were bridesmaids. Marilea Larm was a junior bridesmaid.

Barbara was given away by her father, R. E. Lindquist of Berkeley.

Charles R. Henderson of Menlo Park was best man for his brother, son of Mrs. Bessie Henderson. A reception followed the ceremony in Mrs. Henderson's home.

After three months in Rhode Island, where Robert is serving with the Sea Bees, the couple will return to Menlo Park.

Harmons Will Fete Governor

Members of the Orinda Republican Women's Club will assist at the coffee party honoring Gov. and Mrs. Goodwin Knight this Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Howard, Walnut Creek.

Hostesses will include Mrs. Robert Galbraith, vice-president of the northern division of the Federation of Republican Women; Mrs. Thomas Barrows, president of the Orinda Republican Women's Club; and the Mesdames James Irwin Jr., Donald Krotz, J. Aubrey Sweet, Charles Smith, Marvin Kennedy, M. H. Fowler, Wayne Bentley and George Cook.

University Women Start Fourth Year

The Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women has launched it fourth year of activities.

The first meeting on September 15 was in the form of a workshop for the orientation of new members, and in accord with the general theme for the year: a deeper understanding by all members of the scope and purpose of the various study fields. The meeting was held at the Walnut Creek Women's Club.

The chairmen of the groups participated in a discussion to summarize their plans for the year. Headed by Mrs. Edward Dunlap, vice-president and program chairman, these are: fellowship, Mrs. John Strong; the arts, Mrs. C. L. Offen; international relations, Mrs. John Upsher Smith; and the Contemporary Problems quartette — education, Mrs. J. A. Buckland; social studies, Mrs. Hollis McLaughlin; status of women, Miss Ruth Turner; legistlation, Mrs. E. J. Molloy.

In expressing her approval of the year's program, Mrs. Ralph C. Olberg, president, stated, "This first meeting has given AAUW members a preview of their opportunities within the framework of the organization and their responsibility for study, for action, for community cooperation consistent with the high aims of AAUW."

Art Section to Hear Werness

Blair Werness of Werness Interiors will be the featured speaker at the first meeting of the Art Section of Walnut Creek Branch of American Association of University Women. His subject will be "Practical Applications of Basic Design in Home Decoration."

The meeting will take place Monday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. L. Offen, 1245 Bonita Lane, Walnut Creek. Mrs. E. R. Shirey will be co-hostess.

'Welcome Tea' Enjoyed

The Orinda Mothers Club held their second "Welcome Tea" on Tuesday for the mothers and teachers of the Orinda-Sleepy Hollow schools, given for the purpose of greeting both new and old members of the club.

Mrs. Walter Boysen invited the Mothers Club to use her lovely home for the tea, and was responsible for the beautifully appointed tea table.

Mrs. Miles Hudson, chairman, was ably assisted by sixth and eighth grade room mothers from the Orinda School including Mesdames William Thurston, Stanley Kendall, W. W. Swedberg, Angus McLeod, Robert Newhaus and Bruce Anderson.

The sixth and eighth grade mothers served as hostesses for the day, furnishing and serving the delicious refreshments.

Presiding at the tea tables were the Mesdames Miles Sutliffe, Jess Schwarck, Walter Boysen, Robert L. Bigler and Roger Stark.

Mr. Joseph Sheaff and the faculty from the two schools were present to greet the club members.

Heading the receiving line was Mother's Club president Mrs. Coleman Huntley, assisted by the Mesdames Vernon Axelson, vice-president; George Drysdale, treasurer; James Seaman, recording secretary; Charles Lohse, corresponding secretary; Miles Sutliffe, board advisor; James Brown, Orinda coordinator; Ted Schilling, Orinda room mothers chairman; Francis Gillespie, Sleepy Hollow coordinator and Harold Caldwell, Sleepy Hollow room mother chairman.

Mrs. Coleman Huntley and Mrs. Miles Hudson expressed jointly their thanks to the tea committee for their splendid cooperation in making the tea an outstanding success.

Book Section to Hear Mrs. Court

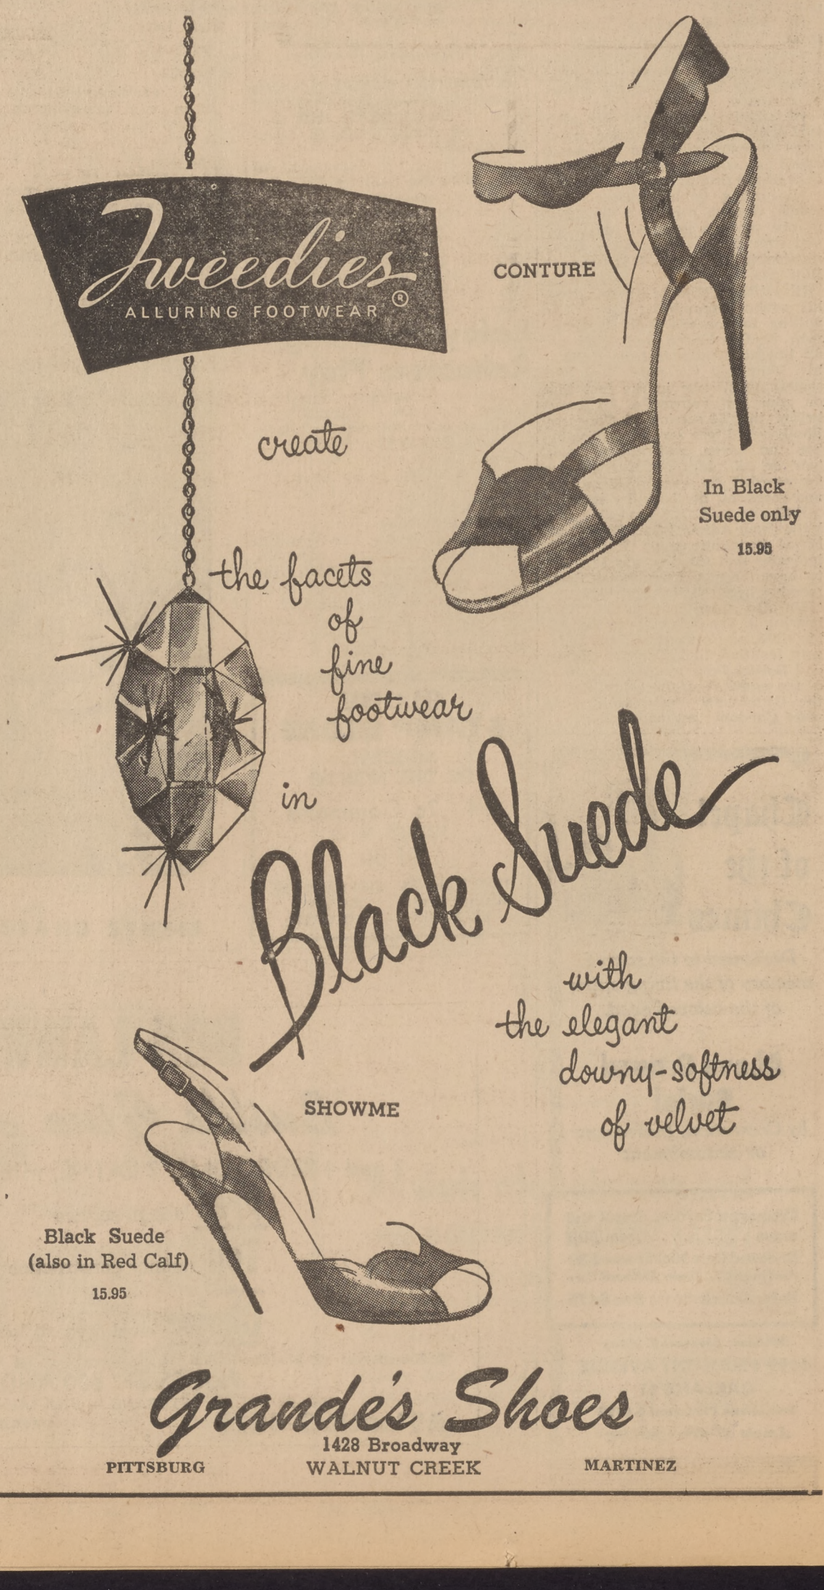
The Book Section of Lafayette Women's Forum will hear Mrs. Donn Court review the current best seller, "Not as a Stranger," at its first meeting of the season Tuesday.

The meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m., at the home of Book Section Chairman Mrs. Raymond F. Ouer, 1046 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette. Tea will be served by the hostesses of the day, Mesdames Vincent Lombardo, T. J. Clark, F. T. Hawkesworth and Udo H. Hinck.

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Meet

Diablo Alumnae of Alpha Delta Pi held its first fall meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Carroll Peterson of Sonia Drive, Oakland, to discuss the calendar of events for the coming year.

This year's slate of officers includes: President, Mrs. Victor Walberg, Lafayette; vice president, Mrs. Carroll Peterson, Oakland; secretary, Mrs. Marvin Johansen, Concord; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Cullen, Orinda; membership chairman, Mrs. Thomas Guy, Walnut Creek, and publicity chairman, Mrs. Richard Doolin, Walnut Creek.



Your Lawn Needs Regular Feeding

To keep your lawn a pleasing green and in top shape, feed it at least every two or three months with a complete commercial fertilizer—preferably one that is high in nitrogen.

Or, even better, use a general commercial fertilizer every two or three months, supplemented by a light feeding with a nitrogenous fertilizer every month.

And the gardener who wants to keep his lawn at its very best will find it advisable to use a chemical fertilizer a couple of times a year also. Your nurseryman can make brand recommendations in each case.

Spraying Is Part of Fall Garden Program

Right along with your fall planting activity comes spraying for garden pests still in evidence. You will continue to have some hot weather pests to eliminate in "winning the battle of the bugs."

Red spider can be controlled with malathion, lindane and combinations of these materials. Scales should be treated with oil sprays. Protect against mildew with lime sulfur sprays. For lawn moths use chlordane, lindane or DDT sprays.

In all spraying for garden pests, it is essential to get thorough coverage of all the plants, according to Stan Hayes, Pasadena garden authority.

It's Not Too Early to Start Planning For Hollies for Yuletide Decoration

By THE GARDENER

Excepting outdoor Christmas trees, no growing plants or shrubs express the Yuletide spirit as well as the various members of the holly family. You can secure container grown varieties of holly from nurseries now, transplant them and have berries and evergreen foliage suitable for wreaths and other decorations at Christmas time.

Throughout the world there are some 600 varieties of holly. On the West Coast there are 20 good species and varieties available.

In size, evergreen hollies range from 6-inch dwarfs to 60-foot trees. Leaves may be sharp spined or smooth edged. Berries come in red, orange, yellow and black.

HOLLIES ARE GENERALLY long living and slow growing and will tolerate a multitude of soil types. However, they cannot stand poor drainage or extreme cold.

English holly is traditionally a Christmas holly — with brilliant red berries, glossy, green foliage and sharp, spiny leaves.

There are many horticultural forms ranging from 4 to 10 feet at maturity. The Jan Van Tol or Dutch holly, with spineless or almost spineless leaves, is one of these forms; it produces bright red holiday berries.

ANOTHER MEMBER of the holly family is the Chinese holly, which resembles its English cousin but is lower growing. Its leaves have less spines and it fruits with huge scarlet berries at Christmas time. Being self-fertile, it will set berries without pollen from other plants.

Burford holly is a good foundation or tub pant with soft, sprawling lines and scarlet berries. It grows to 10 feet. A true dwarf holly is the Heller holly — compact and round — growing to a one-foot height and 2-foot spread.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST to gardeners in this state is the California holly or Christmas berry or toyon, as it is variously known. This bushy shrub or small tree grows from 6 to 25 feet, with thick, dark green, bristly leaves.

It has white flowers in early summer and bright red berries around the holiday season. Drought-tolerant, it is excellent for erosion control on hillsides.

Many Trees Rich With Fall Color

There are any number of trees that herald the arrival of autumn with brilliant displays of fall color here in the West.

One of the best is Liquidamber or Sweet Gum. Some members of the well-loved Maple family are also naturals for color in fall.

Another fine fall color tree is the deciduous Chinese Pistache.

Red autumnal shades are also provided by the Pink Flowering Dogwood. And for a golden butteryellow color about your yard and home in the fall, the Gingko or Maidenhair tree provides the answer.

Roses Should Receive Care

During the first days of fall, rose bushes and plants should have a light pruning and general cleanup—and in the case of well established plants, a feeding.

Gardeners frequently differ in opinion as to how much pruning should be done after each crop of blooms. Flowers should be cut off or picked off as they fade.

HOME and GARDEN

Prepare That New Lawn Now!

Gardeners and garden authorities pretty much agree that fall and spring are the best times of the year to plant a lawn. Fall is an advantageous time in that the danger of heat injury to young grass is virtually past.

Gardeners considering fall lawn planting should carefully prepare the seedbed now and actually sow next month.

The care with which you prepare the seedbed will virtually determine the quality of your lawn and how many years it will last. Your nurseryman will supply you only with top quality straight or mixed seed in varieties that are known to be suitable for your particular soil conditions and climate.

Will Give Color

When you start thumbing through bulb catalogs, preparatory to planting for early color next spring, put a check mark by Anemone and Ranunculus.

The showy shades of blue, red and white provided by Anemone flowers will be excellent in your rock garden and borders.

Ranunculus' camellia-like blooms in yellow, orange and red shadings will provide strong color contrasts when placed in borders with a selected assortment of annuals.

Wondering About Garden Schedule? Here's Checklist

Timely advice offered by this week's Garden Checklist includes the following pointers:

1. Plant a low cover crop of flowers over tulip and daffodil beds.

After planting the bulbs, sow these seeds over the top: Virginia stock, sweet alyssum, anagallis, and baby blue eyes. Plants of pansies, violas, and baby primrose may also be used for this purpose.

2. Plant Dutch iris now. This is the best iris for a cut flower. Plant in the sun in well-drained soil.

3. Lawns should be seeded now so that they can become established before cold weather.

4. Remove weeds from the lawn by applying a selective weed killer. Spray the weeds away!

5. Red spider is causing considerable damage in many gardens. Your nurseryman will recommend a control.

This Tough Glass Safer for Children

Windows facing children's play yards and other rough-treatment areas have less chance of breakage when glazed with toughened plate glass, says H. Creston Doner, a glass authority.

Tuf-flex is three to five times stronger than ordinary plate and, when its breaking-point is reached, it does not shatter, but crumbles into small, harmless crystals.

'Mums' Now Available

"Mums" can be had at nurseries now in a wide variety of well nurtured plants.

They'll be blooming in the next few weeks and obligingly will provide color for you well into winter —whether planted in beds and borders or in pots and containers.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

ONCE A YEAR THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL of the East Bay calls its executives and all members of its branches in to lunch at the Claremont Hotel and to tote up the tally of the earnings of the branches from their very diversified activities, i.e., prize fights to home made pickles.

The hospital, one of the best equipped and staffed in the world, exists by and large as most hospitals exist, by payment for services from patients and by special endowments; but the earnings of the branches go for full or part pay for small patients whose parents are financially unable to meet the emergency.

And when you realize the enormous cost of care for polio, rheumatic fever, menengitis, encephalitis, etc., you are aware that this is a situation that could happen to any of us.

Well, once a year, when the figures are found to be in the hundreds of thousands, our husbands and men friends are always amazed and a little awed that a bunch of feather-brained femmes (personally speaking, of course) are able, out of the unending and undecipherable flurry of activity that goes on in each branch during the year, to deposit for the hospital an impressive sum of several thousand dollars.

Here's the lowdown on the high funds

It is great temptation to attribute this situation to astuteness and acumen, when relating details to the superior sex, but we feel that the time has come for confession. The reason for bank balance instead of bankruptcy at the termination of each project is — friends. Our friends, friends of the hospital and friends of children in general.

Par example, the members of the Orinda Branch staged, over the weekend, a fish-bake in our backyard.

Motivation was slow to the point of non-existence as the members refused to uncoil from their summer lethargy. As a matter of fact, a scant two weeks before the event a special emergency meeting was called and progress to date was found to be in reverse.

To be explicit: (1) primary requisite to a fish-bake, king salmon, were found not to be running in California water; (2) no guests had been invited, and (3) no entertainment was forthcoming to entice same.

Chairman Jasmine's husband, Dr. Steve Jensen, arranged with his brother Mark in Portland and the Washington Fish Company to track down 200 pounds of the commodity if he had to go to Alaska to get them, these to be handled with tender love and affection by Walter Palladini upon arrival.

Inspiration for terpsichore and dining

Next appeared on the scene in the role of good samaritan, if not actual savior, one Pop Kennedy, the West Coast Petrillo of Musicians Union Local 6, whom we will always picture mentally as wearing red suit and long white beard.

Pop made his contribution to the little folk with a very lively orchestra headed by Jack Cannon and consisting of Paul Mark, Paul Simons and Glen Kerr, who, for gosh sakes, discovered that he and one of the guests, Mrs. Don Norman, had grown up together in Woodland. As to qualifications of orchestra, suffice to say it inspired local twinkle toes to terpsichorian endeavor until six a.m.

As if this weren't enough, our own Jay Bedsworth, always eager to help a community project and a real soft touch for sick kids, sent down huge quantities of his divine roquefort salad, and — this is not in order of importance — his very popular entertainer, Wilbur Baranco, who, when not enthralling large groups around the piano at Tunnel Inn, instructs in the jazzy arts for UC extension.

Incidentally, did you know that his boy, Vic Baranca, plays tackle for Cal?

As another treat, generous Don Thompson, who never says no, sent over his very talented violinist, Pepe Landeros, most eagerly received by all, particularly Mrs. Mel Nielsen, who spoke his language.

Assisting toward food and drink were Belfast with cases of sparkling water, Granny Goose with potato chips to inspire a continuing thirst and Herman Wente with the wine recommended for fish bakes.

Guests — yes, there were hundreds of 'em!

Well, physical properties attended to, our fourth dimensional colleagues came to the rescue, to spread the word in their devious ways (most newspaper people are naturally slightly fey), and the first thing we know, we have guests, hundreds of them.

Midst the busy flurry of cleanup detail next morning, sit counting loot with treasurer, Mrs. Robert K. Smith, and committee chairmen, the Mesdames Stephen Jensen, Bill Brock, Frank Fee III, Ernest Kahl and Thomas McGuire.

The velvet glove sex has done it again. Unable to balance their check books in private life, here they sit with pinkies filled with profit for immediate transportation to hospital.

In flush of self-appreciation, almost forgot most important acknowledgement — to our husbands and their good, strong backs.

Our own, iscidentally, is now receiving his mail at Peralta Hospital — in traction.

Those fish were heavy!

Ram End Is Named 'Player of the Week'

"He continually came up from the safety position to make tackles . . . three times he broke through massed blockers to stop long runs."

That's what the coach had to say about Roger Phillips, 148-pound end and safety man for the Pleasant Hill Rams, who this week was named "Player of the Week" in this area.

"He's skinny as a rail, but he's full of drive," said Coach Hal Briggs, who nominated Roger for the honor.

AS ROGER WEIGHS 148 and stands just short of 6 feet tall, Coach Briggs' label is understandable.

Sixteen years old, a senior at Pleasant Hill High School. Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe W. Phillips, who live at 2940 Bonnie Lane in Pleasant Hill.

When his team, the Rams, went out to meet the Alhambra Bulldogs at Martinez, last Friday night, Roger was starting his second season as a football player.

He'd been a tumbler at Mt. Diablo High School — even winning a first on the side horse in a meet with Oakland High in 1952 — but his gridiron experience began in 1953 when he transferred to the brand new Pleasant Hill High School.

Last Friday's game against Alhambra was by no means a success, as far as the Rams were concerned, because the score was 30 for the Bulldogs and 0 for Pleasant Hill, but the score didn't stop Roger from doing a good job.

Your team doesn't have to win, in order for you to play first rate football, and whether he thought about it or not, Roger knew it, according to Coach Briggs.

ABOUT THE TEAM, Roger says, "I think we'll kind' pick up . . . we're getting better as we go along." He admits that tonight's opponent, Encinal High of Alameda, "is supposed to be pretty tough," but won't give any more ground than to say, "It ought to be pretty close."

Looking to the season ahead, Roger says, "Las Lomas is the big game . . . that's usually our rival, with both being new schools and everything."

Looking was ahead, Roger is pointing for East Contra Costa Junior College for two years, and then Cal. He'd like to major in engineering.

He plans to "take a crack at playing football in college," but, asked if he likes the University of California style of play, he says, "Well, I don't know . . . I like the way Oklahoma plays . . . I like that split-T."

During the year ahead, and maybe in college, Roger would like to try playing halfback, "because you carry the ball more." He played half parttime for the Rams in 1953, particularly in the game with Acalanes.

At his present position, end, he likes the blocking jobs just about as much as the pass-catching, although he is willing to admit that there is always the chance of running with the ball after receiving a pass.

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT the Ram passers were pretty well stopped, according to Coach Briggs, but they did get away a few (and Roger snagged a couple himself.)

Roger Phillips also has other plans in the sports department. He will go out for track again, as he did in 1953 when he was named captain of the Pleasant Hill track team. He runs both high and low hurdles.

Then, too, he plans to go out for basketball this season, despite the fact that he hasn't done so before.

His other activities are not numbered. For example, he had a minor lead in the Drama Club's production of "Best Foot Forward" last year and is again a member of that high school group this semester.

And then there is the beginners band in which he plays the trombone.

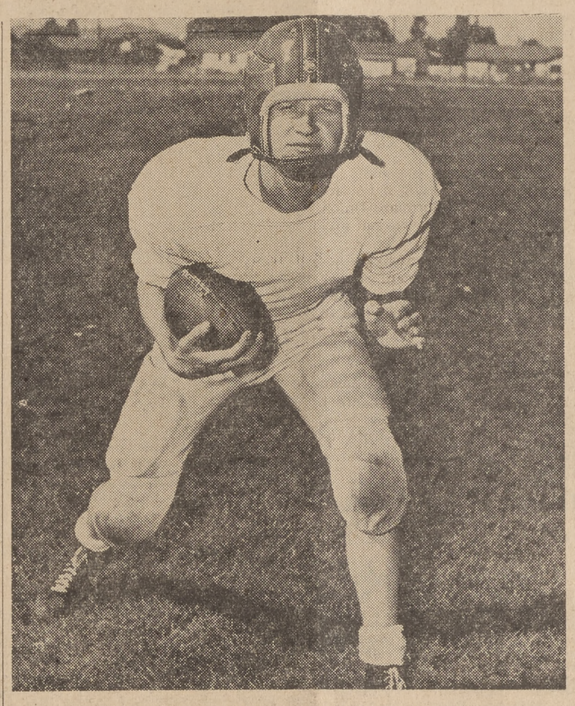
AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES. Roger goes with Melanie Clark, a freshman at Pleasant Hill, and they attend all the dances, he reports.

"She gets kind'a worried about my playing football," he says.

With his mother and father, Roger says, it is different. They like to have him playing football, although his father, a Concord contractor, is often too busy to attend all the games.

Roger has one brother, Duane, 6. Duane doesn't have much of anything to say about his older brother's position on the football team, he reports.

And that's the picture of the "Player of the Week," an active, busy young man who has proven he knows how to put brain and brawn together in order to play outstanding prep football.



PLAYER OF THE WEEK ROGER PHILLIPS

Look for Prep 'Player of Week'

A "Player of the Week" will be selected each week during the current high school football season by The SUN in cooperation with Grodins of California.

He will be chosen from among the schools in the local area — Acalanes, Las Lomas, Pleasant Hill, San Ramon and Mt. Diablo — and selected from players nominated by the coaches at those schools.

Each high school grid star to receive the honor will receive a gold football pin from Grodins and be the subject of a special feature article in The SUN.

Watch for the "Player of the Week" story each week in The SUN.

Prep Grid Play in 2nd Week

Ram Grid Squad Meets Encinal at Concord Tonight

The Pleasant Hill Rams try for a new start when they face Encinal High of Alameda under the lights of Mt. Diablo High's field in Concord tonight, starting at 8 o'clock.

The Rams were a bundle of mistakes when they were licked by the Alhambra Bulldogs 30-0 in their season's opener last Friday night, largely due to inexperience plus the fact that they were a bit too high for their first try at varsity competition.

Head Coach Hal Briggs of the Rams has intensified practice sessions and shifted personnel in order to find an eleven that can gear itself for a sustained offensive drive, especially in view of the fact that the Rams toted the ball a total of only 21 times against the Alhambra Bulldogs. Dropped passes, fumbles and lack of precision robbed the Rams of an offensive threat.

On defense a junior, Fred Cochran (165),takes over at right end.

Little is known of the Encinal School squad. the school is a new branch of Alameda High and is in its first year of varsity competition.

THE ENCINAL squad has limited its grid activity to practice drills, and the Pleasant Hill game tonight will be Encinal's opener.

About the only comparison available is school enrollment, where Encinal leads with better than 1000, compared to 876 for Pleasant Hill.

Chances are that the Rams will make a better showing, having shaken off opening game tension, plus the fact that the coaches have a better line on their charges.

Also, shifts in personnel plus intensive corrective drills have put the Rams back in high gear.

Knight Scalp Indians 6-0 In League Debut

The Las Lomas Knights registered a 6-0 win over the John Swett Indians last Friday afternoon, to make their debut in league play a successful one.

The Knights registered the score in the first quarter when Rick Ostrom took a punt on John Swett's 40 and, behind some good blocking, rambled all the way to score standing up.

The conversion try failed, and there was no further scoring.

THE KNIGHTS outplayed the Swett eleven all the way in the first half and on several occasions drove deep into Swett territory, only to bog down when the chips were blue.

Seconds before the end of the half, the Knights drove to Crockett's 2-yard line, but the gun sounded to end the play.

IN THE SECOND half it was a see-saw battle with neither club doing much in the way of offense, largely due to a lack of sustained blocking.

Standouts for the Knights were End John French, Tackles Arnold Lahde and Arnie Lundquist and Guard Webb Johnson.

High School Girl Wins Bat Honors

Pat Churchill, a Pleasant Hill High School junior, has received the womens' batting trophy from the Walnut Creek Softball Association with an average of .488.

Knights Tackle Liberty Lions at Brentwood Field

The Las Lomas Knights, fresh from a 6-0 win over the John Swett Indians in their first taste of varsity competition, have had their appetite whetted and will be out for win No. 2 when hey face Liberty High under the lights at the Brentwood field tonight.

Liberty had its troubles in its opener last Friday, when it fel lbefore the Antioch Panthers, 25-6.

Las Lomas Head Coach George Deklotz had a look-see at the Liberty Lions and feels, on the basis of what he saw, that the game is pretty much of a tossup.

The Knights have been working overtime this week to get consistent blocking. In the first half with John Swett the blockers were sharp for early season and the offense clicked with a resemblance of regularity.

IT WAS A DIFFERENT story in the second half, however, when the blocking became erratic, and with it went the offense.

Defensive play has come in for its share of attention, with particular emphasis on linebacking, which, for the most part, didn't come up to expectations.

A POSSIBLE CHANGE may take place with Joe Silva, a junior, going to one of the end spots.

The squad as a whole is in fine fettle, with an assortment of minor injuries but none which will keep anyone on the bench.

Kickoff time for the Liberty game is 8 p.m.

Swim Party Nets Polio Over $90

Clark Gelhaus, a long-time resident of Lafayette, staged an aquacade at the Gelhaus pool September 11. The entire proceeds of $90.68 were donated to the Contra Costa Polio Drive.

Over 300 guests attended the performance, some coming from as far away as Sacramento. Fifty-five of this year's students took part in the colorful water pageant with its sunken candles, torch light procession, fluorescent cadence and an introduction to the new synchronized swimming.

AMONG THOSE featured in the program were Misses Liane Berlin, Karen Betaque, Joyce Gelhaus, Carolyn Janes, Valerie Roberts, Dolores Roeschen, Totty Spragens, Christie Suczek and Marilyn Timoney.

The boys were Don Good, Edwin Greeneich and Roger Martin.

In addition to the feature numbers, there were group exhibitions given by the non-swimmer students, the junior novices, the senior novices, the beginners, the intermediates, boys' competition and the synchronized class.

THIS WAS THE second annual aquacade put on by Gelhaus and marked the close of his sixth year as swimming instructor during summer vacations, in the course of which time he has built up an annual attendance of 350 students, ranging from 4 to fortyish.

Clark's effort and enthusiasm have given results, many of his students having been repeaters from season to season as they kept advancing in their swimming and diving technique.

The income from this undertaking has gone a long way toward financing his college education. At present, Clark is attending State College at San Jose, where he is majoring in recreation administration. He will graduate next June.

Dons Travel to Tracy Tonight To Meet Bulldogs

The Acalanes Dons, licking their wounds as the result of a 33-6 loss to the fast and aggressive Piedmont Highlanders last Friday night, take to the road tonight, determined to make their second outing a winning one.

On the basis of reports, they will have their hands full, as the Tracy Bulldogs scored a 14-6 win over Placer High (Auburn) in their opener last Friday night.

The Dons learned a lot of valuable lessons last Friday and in losing showed that they could become a much better club than the one-sided score would indicate.

RED JONES, who quarterbacked the Don Babes to the junior varsity championship last fall, has put in the necessary practice sessions and joins the club tonight.

A top passer and punter, Red should bolster the offense, which, while for from running smooth, has straightened out this week.

Alan McDonald and Dennis Combs will give the Dons depth in the all-important Q.B. spot. Both displayed spots of brilliance last Friday night and their biggest handicap was the lack of game experience.

Combs, a sophohmore, showed passing and running ability far beyond what was expected.

TRACY, according to reports, has a light but speedy backfield, while the team on the whole was hard hit by graduation, and chances are they won't be in mid-season form as Piedmont was.

In the backfield the only change for the Dons is at left half, where sophomore Harold Ecklund takes over for Jeff Wahl, who sits this one out with a sore shoulder.

Wahl is expected back in pads next Monday but in view of Ecklund's showing in practice sessions he may have a fight on hand getting his job back.

John Bohn has come fast this week and is sure to get a chance on both offensive and defensive play, in either the fullback or right half spot.

Alhambra Team Beats Rams 30-0

The Alhambra Bulldogs proved to be too much for the Pleasant Hill Rams last Friday night at Martinez when they ran and passed their way to a 30-0 win.

It was the Rams' first try at varsity play and they found the going tough as inexperience and over-anxiousness took their till.

The Bulldogs struck hard and fast, scoring in the early minutes of the game. Charley Tourville, Alhambra left half, set the stage with a 30-yard pass to End Bob Perrins that ended up on the Rams' 8.

On the next play, Fullback Andy Camarata rambled around left end and scored standing up, and it was 6-0, with the conversion kick blocked.

THE BULLDOGS scored twice more in the first half, leaving the field for the rest period with an 18-0 lead when conversion tries failed.

The Bulldogs hit pay dirt twice in the second half, with conversion missing both times, to leave the score 30-0 when the Rams couldn't put together a successful offensive drive.

FULLBACK Jim McMillan of the Rams did bring the fans to their feet when he unwrapped a 38-yard run, only to drop the ball on the 24-yard line while running all by his lonesome.

Another Ram standout was Calvin Moore, who displayed ball-carrying ability, while in the line Ram Tackle Chuck Van Umerson was a standout with his spirited play.

Indian 'Chief' Returns to Gaels

The Indian Chief is back!

This was the word on the St. Mary's College campus yesterday, following the return of Ray "Chief" West to the Gael athletic staff as assistant to Coach Tom "Red" Foley and athletic trainer.

An Indian descendant of the Cheyenne tribe, West first joined the Gael camp as trainer in 1948. After his departure from St. Mary's in '52, he served with the Dallas Texans of pro football and last year was on the University of California staff.

Gael Cagers Will Play in 26 Games

A 26-game schedule, including a road trip to the Deep South and 12 home contests, will be played by the St. Mary's College basketball team this coming season, Coach Tom "Red" Foley announced yesterday.

The December trip will pit the Gaels against Washington University in St. Louis, Mississippi Southern in Gulfport, Loyola of the South in New Orleans and Spring Hill College in Mobile, Ala. All home games again will be played in the campus gym.

It costs you at least $2.50 extra when you go through the tunnel to shop. Save at home!

Decision to Prohibit Night Games At Richmond Is Not Right Answer

By ERWIN MATTSON

I SEE BY THE papers that the Richmond High School District has called off all night games and gone over to day ball because of incidents occurring at the games.

The rowdy element, which is far in the minority, must feel mighty important now.

Personally I feel the action was wrong and the easy way out of a not-too difficult problem.

The majority suffer because of the minority. By far the greater majority behave themselves and take victory and loss in stride.

If they would deal severely with the culprits causing the trouble, such as a few days under lock and key plus a $50 fine for parents, you would soon see the problem eliminated.

I am for night ball, not because of the big crowds but because I feel that it is definitely easier on players. They get less tired and injuries are cut way down.

Parents and friends like to watch players perform.

Part of education is teaching people how to get along with one another, just as a part of coaching is teaching how to win and how to lose. Fair play is as important in the stands as on the field.

To me, giving in to hoodlums is resigning yourself to failure and inability to teach people to handle themselves.

The action taken was the easy way, but, in the opinion of many, not the right way.

Dons Trampled by Highlanders, 33-6

The Acalanes Dons simply met too much power and precision in the highly seasoned Piedmont Highlanders last Friday night as they went down, 33-6.

The game, played under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field, found the Piedmont eleven scoring on a 67-yard drive the first time they got their hands on the ball

The Highlanders built up a 27-0 halftime lead and coasted to the win in the second half when each club scored 6.

THE DONS GOT in the scoring act when End Dave Baldwin fell on a fumbled punt in the end zone for 6.

The attempted conversion try was wide.

The Scots stayed with their best eleven throughout three quarters of the game, with the first eleven accounting for every score.

Ace of the attack was Quaterback Leo Cumletich, who displayed some outstanding passing, with End Jay Howard his favorite target as he completed 11 out of 14 tries.

THE DONS HAD a bright spot in sophomore quarterback Dennis Combs, who displayed some good passing of his own and also did some nifty running.

The Dons threw 37 players into the game with the idea of getting a look-see at as many players as possible.

Ends Jerry Coakley, Bob Roberts and Pete Villa, along with Center Andy Fadelli, were best in the line for the Dons.

A sophomore back, Harold Ecklund, made a good showing, particularly with his defensive play.

Vikings Meet Vallejo 'Skins Tomorrow Night

With the opening "nerve-wracker" under his belt, East Contra Costa Junior College Coach Hal Buffa looks ahead with more normal concern to the season's second non-conference game with Vallejo Junior College tomorrow night.

The game will be played on the Alhambra High School turf in Martinez; kickoff time is 8 p. m.

Having knocked off the first major intersectional foe in the college's brief history, ECCJC's Vikings are letting last Saturday night's 19 to 0 defeat of the Pirates of Orange Coast College speak for itself and are busy correcting mistakes they don't want to repeat against V. J. C.'s Redskins.

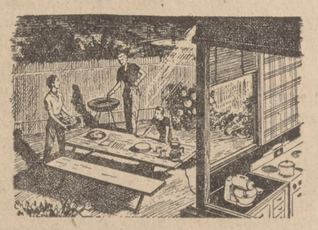
modern electric living began with this lamp

The date was October 21, 1879. In his laboratory young Thomas Edison stood watching a filament glow in a glass bulb. The ingredients of his crude experimental lamp were a bit of carbonized cotton thread bent in horseshoe form, and placed inside the sealed glass bulb. And it was this—the first successful incandescent lamp—that brought electricity out of the laboratory, and into the home.

In the same year, 1879, San Francisco was the first city in the world where anyone could buy electricity. P.G. and E. electric business dates from this tiny plant pictured above. Another P. G. and E. ancestor company had introduced the first gas lights, 25 years earlier.



Today, electricity is an everyday part of our lives. And good lighting costs so little. Thanks to more efficient light bulbs and lower cost of electricity, you now get 17 times as much light for your money as people did when the incandescent lamp was first used in California.

Christian Science

How understanding of the spiritual nature of reality brings enduring health, harmony, and progress — will be set forth at services at Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday at 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality" includes the following from I Peter (1:24,25): "For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth forever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following correlative passage will be read (335:27-29): "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmounious, or eternal."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (1:31): "As it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."

Crowds Gather in City Park to See Folk Dance Fete

Some 3000 persons gathered in the Walnut Creek City Park Sunday to watch the afternoon and evening presentations in the Seventh Annual Folk Dance Festival of the California Federation of Folk Dance Clubs.

Some 8000 participants were garbed in colorful costumes as they demonstrated and enjoyed a series of American and foreign folk dances.

SQUARE DANCES were called by Dan McDonald, Sue Lemon, Randy Randolph, Reid Peterson, Clarence Crooks, Glen and Reva Ward, Bev Wilder and Stan Valentine and groups presented exhibition dances between squares.

"Chi Lo Sa," an original Tarantala, was presented by Walnut Creek's Suburban Swingers under the direction of the Wards and a group of Scottish dances was given by Phil Aldrich.

The Millbrae Highlanders, directed by Walter Grothe, presented "A Lithuanian Wedding Dance," while the San Francisco Folk Arts Group danced "Chiapanects."

During the festival, masters of ceremonies were Evelyn Shaw, Glen Ward, William Bock, Herb Shelley, Angie Laven, Frank EnEarl, Bev Wilder and Marge Underwood.

MAYOR E. C. "TED" COUNTER gave a brief welcoming speech where he invited the dancers to return to the park next year.

Host for the dance fete was Diablo Council of Folk and Square Dance Clubs. Assisting with arrangements were:

Stan Valentine, general chairman; Reva Ward, program content; Howard Kartozian, program assembly; Bob Underwood and Bill Wakeman Jr., sound and Norm Peddicord and Marie Bock, grounds.

Walt Sessions and Bob Franz, records; Bill Riggs, publicity; Bill Bush and Glen Ward, advertising, and Winnie and Stan McGlauflin, hospitality.

MELODIOUS HARMONY IN ABUNDANCE will be heard October 9 in Acalanes High School as Walnut Creek Elks sponsor an evening of barbershop quartet singing to benefit the California Cerebral Palsy Society. Practicing for the event is the local lodge's foursome, C. S. "Bummy" Bumgarner, Fred Steile, Al Nye and Chuck Aiman. They will be joined by sevral other barbershop quartets in addition to a 60 man chorus and Berkeleyanns Chapter of Sweet Adelines. Tickets are being sold by Elks and local merchants for $1.50. Bumgarner, chairman, has suggested local residents buy early as past experience has shown standing room only by performance time.

3 Take Graduate Posts at Mills

Three Central Contra Costa County residents have been appointed to graduate posts at Mills College.

Mrs. Phyllis Howe, 1391 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek, is the recipient of an assistantship in the department of home economics. Miss Suzanne Conwell, 401 La Vista Road, Walnut Creek, has been named an assistant in the counseling and guidace department. Serving as assistant in the audio-visual aids department will be Eugene Bunker, 3343 St. Mary's Road, Lafayette.

Aims Stated by Guidance Group

Aims of East Contra Costa Branch of Guidance for Retarded Children were announced this week.

The group recently initiated a pre-school for mentally retarded youngsters between the ages of 3 and 8 which meets at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Walnut Creek.

"Our second step will be to provide vocational training for children of age 14 or older. Our object here is to equip the child with a suitable lifetime occupation, as well as continue the job of education," the announcement said.

"Following this we expect to find or devlop suitable job outlets which will permit him to achieve partial self-sufficiency.

Conference Told, 'CD Common Sense'

"Civil Defense is common sense!" said Scott Nagel, field representative of the State Office of Civil Defense, representing Major General W. M. Robertson, State Director of Civil Defense, whose presence was prevented by emergency surgery, as he set the theme of the Disaster Preparedness in Schools Conference here Monday.

He addressed school superintendents, principals and official observers from State and Region Civil Defense Offices, PTA units, AAUW and like organizations, at the Enean Theater in Concord.

TALKING ON PLANS for dispersion and the danger of complacency in the face of Contra Costa County's critical target situation Nagel said the two extremes of "It can't happen here" and "Well there's nothing you can do about it" must, to any thinking person, have a solution in the middle ground that Civil Defense is your best insurance.

B. O. Wilson, county superintendent of schools, presided over the conference which included a panel discussion on organization of Civil Defense on state and area levels with emphasis on the welfare, evacuation, medical and health aspects of the school's role in disaster.

Dr. Milan Steig, field representative, Federal Civil Defense Administration, was moderator with Harry Stoops, Region 3 Coordinator, explaining the regional structure; Mrs. Barbara Sturgeon, the area; Robert Wymer, welfare and evacuation, and Dr. Yoshiye Togasaki, medical and health.

MRS. RUTH PAPE, Mt. Diablo Chapter American Red Cross, spoke on disaster first aid in schools; Ward Cockerton, teacher-coordinator of fire training at Contra Costa Junior College, reviewed fire problems and their prevention.

Horace Hancock, County Civil Defense Office, demonstrated how to make the schoolroom safe using children from the Concord Elementary School, and Steve Rossi, deputy sheriff and CD instructor for Contra Costa County, discussed communications.

G. K. Burton, assistant director, County Civil Defense, announced that the conference was designed to prepare a complete overall CD program for every school in the county and that school officials attending are to return and indoctrinate their staff in procedures to be followed to offer maximum safety to children in their care.

A SPECIAL FILM, "The Block Mother Warning System," a new idea in protection of school children while on school buses during an air alert, was shown for the first time.

PTA units and parents clubs are going to be asked to aid in this plan for children in Contra Costa County's schools. The plan, originated and developed by County Civil Defense, is under the direction of Edna F. Selley, public information officer for County Civil Defense.

TB Association Hears Spokesman

"The present goal of the voluntary tuberculosis association movement is the eradication of the disease," stated James G. Stone, executive secretary of the National Tuberculosis Association, when he met this week to discuss trends in TB control with the board of directors of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

"The original goal of the National Tuberculosis Association, when it was founded in 1904, has changed in emphasis during recent years," he said.

He pointed out that in 1904, one family out of every four in the U. S. was affected by tuberculosis. Today the incidence of the disease has been reduced; however, he called upon the entire community to regroup its efforts in an attempt to eliminate the disease from our society.

"The declining death rate from tuberculosis," Stone said, "gives a false impression of the tuberculosis problem in the United States. Despite this declining death rate, there has not been a corresponding decline in the number of new cases of tuberculosis.

"New drugs and improved surgical techniques have been helpful in shortening the length of hospitalization, in prolonging lives of TB patients, and in ultimately curing them."

Course Opened

Through the courtesy of the Contra Costa County Legal Secretaries Association a course is being offered to girls who wish to become legal secretaries. The only requirements are shorthand and typing.

The material will be presented by various legal secretaries and attorneys in Contra Costa County and will be taught Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the East Contra Costa Junior College at Pacheco, for approximately 10 weeks.

Jewish Holy Days Begin Monday Eve

The Contra Costa Jewish Community Center has announced that services for the High Holy Days will be held in the beautifully remodeled center building at Lafayette beginning Monday evening.

The Center is fortunate in securing the services of Rabbi Iser L. Freund of San Jose. Rabbi Freund is a graduate of the Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati and during the war he served in the Chaplaincy. He was instrumental in building and designing the present magnificent temple in San Jose.

People of Jewish faith in many countries all over the world will be simultaneously observing the Holy Days and the members of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center are particularly proud that this year they are able to hold services in their own Center.

Services are scheduled as follows: New Year—Monday, 8:30-10 p.m.; Tuesday, 10 a.m.-12 noon.

Atonement Day—Kol Nidre, October 6, 8:30-10:30 p.m.; October 7, 10 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

Reservations may be made by made by mail or phone to either Mrs. S. Kroff, 141 El Toyonal, Orinda, CLifford 4-3332 or Fred Kratzberg, 29 E. Vivian, Concord, MUlberry 2-2190.

Some 2000 Attend Lt. Brown Rally

Some 2000 Brown for Sheriff boosters from every corner of the county gathered at Mitchell Canyon Sunday afternoon for a fund-raising rally as chefs dished out beef, chili beans and other food and dollars poured in from individuals intent on electing Lt. Harry A. Brown sheriff.

Introduced by Lincoln Mers of El Sobrante, Brown told of his many years of law enforcement experience, including his five years with the U.S. Customs Service as special narcotics agent and his work with the U.S. Navy at Hunters Point where he was in charge of 7000 men and responsible for security matters.

Orinda leaders present were Boone Robinson, Zach Montgomery, the James Hupps, Mitchell Farrars and Mrs. George F. Hickok.

From Lafayette, workers were the Sumner McAllisters, Robert Jefferys, Ed Rowland and Gertrude Walker.

From Walnut Creek came Phil Bancroft Jr., Alvin Burton and Richard Nesbitt, and from Pleasant Hill the Paul Danes came with many boosters.

Incorporation-Without City Tax?

Incorporation is a subject which, despite conflicting opinions, seems to be on the upgrade as a discussion-point.

In Orinda, the recently completed Coro Foundation report is being carefully studied, and at an October 11 "town meeting" the people will decide whether incorporation petitions should be circulated.

In Lafayette, even though incorporation steps were voted down at a June meeting at Acalanes High School, the subject is still being studied and interest is keen.

In Pleasant Hill, "limited incorporation" is being considered.

In Happy Valley, Lafayette, the proposal for incorporation of that section has evoked spirited controversy.

The Mt. Diablo Area Junior Chamber of Commerce is trying to arrange for a study on the feasibility of a borough system of incorporation for Central Contra Costa County.

In view of all this, considerable interest will probably be shown in the recent announcement of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association that present governmental studies indicate it is now possible for some residential areas to incorporate without levying any city property tax.

That is the possibility in which the Pleasant Hill Civic Council is interested.

The Taxpayers Association points out that several cities in the state have recently been established with tax rates as low as 23 cents, though none has yet attempted to get along entirely without the traditional property tax.

According to the CCCTA, what may make this possible are the following developments:

1. Cities now receive most of their income not from the property tax but from state funds, sales taxes, fines, building and business permits, etc.

2. Special districts now provide city services such as fire protection, sewers and flood control to incorporated as well as unincorporated areas, thus relieving a city of some of its most expensive responsibilities.

It has been found that instead of building up its own departments, a small city can make large savings by contracting with other public or with private agencies for many services —such as police, street work, planning and zoning, inspection work and legal, fiscal, clerical and janitorial assistance.

In order to get in the "no property tax" category, a potential city would also need favorable local conditions, the Taxpayers Association points out.

Particularly, the residents should agree that the city's services be of a limited suburban type, rather than running the gamut of traditional urban city activities, according to this approach. In many areas this would boil down to police, street repair and planning, in the opinion of the studies.

Expensive items to be avoided include recreation, parks, city beautification, new street work, extensive public buildings and a large staff of city employees.

It might also be advisable, under this setup, for the voters to pass an ordinance forbidding the city council to levy a property tax, just in case.

The studies being surveyed, including University of California and foundation projects, assume that in many suburban areas there is a growing demand for community control instead of county control over local affairs such as planning, police and general development.

At the same time there is a fear of the usual city taxes and political complications.

These plans of "limited incorporation" attempt to provide a solution.

As the results of the studies are checked, the Taxpayers Association expects to make them available to interested areas.

Servicemen Donate To Cancer Society

An unexpected windfall of $232 was received by the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society this week.

The donation came from Contra Costa County members of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps serving overseas. It was forwarded from national headquarters of the American Cancer Society in New York.

Richard Sanders, president of the local American Cancer Society Branch, said today that he has been advised that a total of $227,001.93 was contributed to the American Cancer Society this year by Armed Forces pehsonnel overseas. The California Division of the society received $16,803 of this amount.

Sanders said that this week's "windfall" brought the total amount received by the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society to $20,693.65 for the fiscal year ending August 31. He said that the money will be used to intensify the society's fight against cancer in the fields of research, education and service to the cancer patient.

Anyone For Folk Dancing Lessons?

Those interested in taking beginning folk dance instruction are invited to register in the evenings at Acalanes High School, 1200 Pleasant Hill Road.

The classes for those with no previous folk dance instruction will be taught by Reva and Glenn Ward.

Each class meeting will last two hours and will be held every Monday and a nominal tuition fee will be charged each couple.

Further information may be obtained by calling the night school office, ATlantic 3-6262, between 7 p.m. and 10 p.m.

What They Say . . .

What About the Coming Time Change?

As days begin to grow shorter thoughts turn to fall parties and the coming holiday season.

A sort of "kicking off point" for all fall activities seems to be the end of Daylight Saving Time which goes into effect Sunday.

Thinking of this, The SUN this week phoned residents to ask them, "What do you like, or what don't you like about the return to Standard Time?"

And here is what they say:

"WELL, AT LEAST it makes it lighter in the morning when we get up," said Miss Yolande Rowe, 12 Las Mesas, Orinda. "It's getting much chillier now, so it doesn't affect evening patio parties much."

Mrs. Mildred Mellow, 1096 Orchard Road, Lafayette, said: "I haven't given it much thought. It doesn't make much difference to me one way or another."

MRS. R. L. ROWLEY, 30 La Noria, Orinda, commenter, "Well, my friends and I have been arguing about that all summer, but when it goes back I don't like it too much. I'm really indifferent about it all, but it seems to me it makes the change into winter too pronounced."

"I do like to go back to Standard Time in the winter time," said Mrs. Paul Rucker, 3272 Sweet Drive, Lafayette.

"For this time of year, I like it," said Mrs. Hugh Hexton Jr. of 1351 El Curtola Boulevard, Walnut Creek. "Though in the summer I like Daylight Saving Time, so I wouldn't have much argument either way," she added.

"I like Standard Time because it gets darker and you can get the kids in beed sooner," said Mrs. L. J. Miller of 175 Elaine Drive, Pleasant Hill.

"IT SUITS ME FINE," said Mrs. Dean Sandford of 411 Roberta Avenue, Walnut Creek. "I would just as soon have Standard Time all the time.

"There are advantages both ways. You have more time to work outside in the evenings in summer, but it makes it a little more difficult to get the children to bed."

"It's gotten to be almost a habit to change the time," replied Mrs. H. S. Glidden of 2975 Bonnie Lane, Walnut Creek. "I do like the Daylight Saving Time in the summer because it gives us longer evenings.

"But I think it's a good idea that we change back when we do because the children would be going to school in the dark almost."

Visitors from Abroad

During recent weeks the Kaiser Foundation Hospital has played host to a distinguished list of out-of-town visitors according to Donald Nesbit, administrator.

JC Part-time Classes Moved To PH High

The task of moving the majority of the program for part-time students from East Contra Costa Junior College to space in the Pleasant Hill High School for the next few months, and of informing the public about the move, confronted junior college authorities today.

The first announcement came from College Director Leland L. Medsker, who said that due to building now going on at the campus, as well as heavy enrollments, it will necessary to transplant all but 11 of the evening class schedule to the Pleasant Hill High School, starting next week. The plan will continue, he said, until facilities on campus are available.

The 11 exceptions, he went on to say, will be classes which require special equipment.

Remaining "at home" on campus, will be those in dental science, radio and television service (both the basic and advanced classes), community orchestra, survey of general chemistry (2A and 2B), clothing construction (beginning and advanced, as well as the Wednesday afternoon class), advanced police training and health education.

Diablo Artists To Hear Sculptor

Sculptor Carlo Taliabue will speak to Diablo Art Association Monday at 8 p. m. in the guild hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek.

The public is also invited to hear his lecture and see an art in action display. Born in Cremona, Italy, Taliabue studied art at the Royal Academy in Milan and came to the United States in 1924.

Among his accomplishments are was memorials in Italy and South America, terra cotta decoration of the San Francisco Opera House and other work in California.

He was also recently commissioned to do three large bas reliefs for the gymnasium for Fresno State College.

Democrats Will Gather Monday at Benefit Dinner

A large fund raising dinner will be held Monday at Diablo Country Club by the Federation of Democratic Clubs of Contra Costa County.

Spokesmen have stated they hope to have 1000 persons in attendance to raise $3000 for the United Democratic Campaign Fund.

Tickets are available at $6 per plate.

Elks Initiate New Members

New candidates were initiated into Walnut Creek Elks Lodge 1811 Wednesday as the unit celebrated District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler night.

DDGER George Ireland paid an official visit to the local lodge and the evening included a buffet supper and entetrtainment.

Cancer Leaders To Attend Confab

The Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society will send two delegates to the society's annual meeting in San Francisco October 1 and 2 it was announced today.

They will include Mrs. Kenneth Nicol, eastern area chairman, and Irving H. Magill of Walnut Creek, campaign chairman for the county.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

That 'Unorthodox' Proposal

Recently we were looking for the right word to describe The SUN's proposal that Utah Construction Company, the Rheem and Dollar interests should consider purchase of the Sacramento Northern Railroad for commuting purposes.

Is it an "extraordinary" proposal? Or should we call the idea "unusual," "crazy" or "unorthodox"? We decided on unorthodox.

We readily admit the idea is unorthodox — or any of the other words. And when we first considered presenting the proposal, the reaction of our editorial staff members was, "Quick, let's head for a psychiatrist."

However, we gave the proposition considerable thought and the more we considered it, the less far-fetched it became.

Let's discuss it for a few minutes.

Questions and more questions

I don't think there is any question whatsoever that this area MUST have adequate commuter transportation facilities in the future. And rapid transit — rail, mono-rail, etc. — is by far the most efficient.

The question: how is this to be effected? Who will do it? And to me the most important question at the moment is: Where can we find leadership to start working on the problem?

The SUN'S proposal is that the three big landholders CONSIDER the purchase of the railroad. Either collectively or individually, these landowners are in a position to act. They have resources; they have able officials and organization; they stand to gain financially. Their huge undeveloped acreage in Moraga, Lafayette and the Saranap area is in or very near the railroad area.

Utah Construction Company is the key to this proposal. They have the most to gain in the development of their proposed city of 30,000 residents.

Public district or corporation?

Perhaps purchase and operation of the railroad is not considered feasible by these firms. Another plan, of course, is a public body — a transportation district. Then, these landowners are in an enviable position of being able to initiate the establishment of a transportation district. Their vast lands could be the nucleus of a district. And they could include their lands with the greatest of ease. For the most part, their areas are uninhabited.

Or they could take the leadership in promoting a new transportation corporation.

Leadership is the key to this problem. Either Utah, or Utah and others can provide the leadership that is so desperately needed.

For several years The SUN has warned of the imminent abandonment of the Sacramento-Northern and the need for careful investigation as to the line's potential use for rapid transit. (Such a survey is underway — for the entire Bay Area.)

The SUN will cooperate in every way possible with Utah, Rheem, Dollar and others in working toward a solution of our transportation problems.

I've read the companies' statements in last week's SUN. They are certainly not encouraging; nor are they really discouraging. If you, they and others start to CONSIDER the problem, something may happen.

Women Who Work at Democracy Now Conducting Campaign to Get Finances

A finance drive is now being conducted by a unique type of organization — a group of women who take their responsibilities as citizens of a democracy seriously enough to want to work at them.

The name of the group is the Concord Provisioinal League of Women Voters and it includes members from Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville and Pleasant Hill as well as Concord.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE was formed in 1920, following the passage of women's suffrage and since that time chapters have been founded in each of the 48 states as well as Hawaii, Alaska and the District of Columbia.

The stated purpose of the nonpartisan organization is to "promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government."

And though only formed last October, the local league gives a good demonstration of that purpose in its program.

The California League is supporting Proposition 3 on the November ballot to place liquor control in hands other than those of the State Board of Equalization and the local unit has scheduled a meeting to acquaint the public with the issue.

Assemblyman Caspar W. Weinberger, who headed the joint subcommittee investigaating alcoholic beverage control, will address a public meeting in Concord Elementary School Monday night, sponsored by the local unit.

AS A FURTHER public service, the league will sponsor a candidates night in Williams Elementary School, Concord, October 27, where congressional, assembly and sheriff hopefuls will speak.

And to make sure its members are well informed, a series of bimonthly study meetings are held, where liquor control was probed and U. S. trade policies and the relation between individual liberties and the public intterest will be considered.

A goal of $200 has been set in the current finance drive which started Monday and will end next Thursday. Individual members are soliciting contributions.

A major portion of the expenses of the local unit are paid through member dues, $3 per annum, but the additional money would lead to a more complete program, spokesmen say.

New members are also being sought to add to the present roster of 65, according to Mrs. Ray Long of Concord, president. Interested wmen may call Membership Chairman Mrs. Monroe Smoth at YE 4-8738.

Some Adult Classes Still Open Here

The fall program of the Acalanes Community Adult Center is now in full swing with registration in most classes still open.

Those groups particularly interested in having additional members enroll include the conversational Spanish class, driftwood sculpture, silk screen printing and stenotypy, the machine shorthand system used by most court reporters and other highly paid stenographers.

In addition to these classes already in progress are the following ones which will start as soon as sufficient interest is shown in any one of them:

An evening class in creative pottery and ceramics; an illustrated lecture series titled "Europe in Color" to be given by Ray and Alberta Montagne, who will present a selection from their collection of thousands of colored slides on the unique and out of the way sights in Europe; and a physical fitness for women course which will consist of directed exercises for figure and posture improvement.

Further information concerning these and other courses offered by the Adult Center may be obtained by Phoning ATlantic 3-6262 or by dropping by the Acalanes Adult Center Office for a copy of the fall program, it was announced by A. D. Dambacher, director, Adult Education.

'Congress for Ike' Van Travels Area

An official "Congress for Eisenhower Bandwagon" toured the area from Orinda to Pleasant Hill September 11, accompanied by John Baldwin, G.O.P. candidate for congressman from the Sixth Congressional District.

The bandwagon, which started its tour from Washington, D.C., was a 32-foot trailer decorated in red, white and blue to give a pictorial review of the Eisenhower administration accomplishments.

Even the hub caps were in the form of giant "Let's Back Ike" buttons.
